Nancy Rogers Kirn Weds at St. James Episcopal Church

On Saturday afternoon, May 18, at three o'clock Nancy Rogers Kirn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hutchins of Chicago and Saugatuck, was united in marriage.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a princess style gown of camel-hair white satin and Brussels lace. Tiny satin covered buttons fastened the dress from the collar to the hemline...

A crown of satin and matching lace held in place her full length veil of illusion and a fingertip length overall. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, sweet peas and English lily.

Mrs. Charles W. Ranson of Saugatuck, the bridegroom's sister, was matron-of-honor for Nancy. Her gown was of yellow chiffon, fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and a square neckline outlined by a self fold and distinguished with gathers at the shoulders. Matching buttons furnished a line from the neckline to the waist in front.

Mrs. William M. Hutchins

With the dress Mrs. Ranson wore a large yellow horsehair picture hat with an open crown and streamers down the back. Rachel Kirn, as maid-of-honor for her sister, wore aqua chiffon, fashioned identically to the matron-of-honor's gown, and her picture hat matched her dress.

The other attendants were gownned alike in the same style of dress. Nancy's sister, Caroline, wore pale blue and Rosalind Randall, another bridesmaid, wore pastel peach. Junior bridesmaid for her sister, Kitty Kirn, wore white chiffon with a matching hat.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at Orchard Lake Country Club, Mrs. Kirn wore an aqua crepe gown with self embroidery at the waistline, short sleeves and a deep V-neck.

The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise crepe gown with a side drape and a wide gold kid belt. Her flowered hat was in shades of pink and purple and she pinned a spray of violets and lavender stocks to her gold bag.

For traveling Mrs. Hutchins donned a silvery leaf-green gabardine suit, brown accessories and a wheat colored straw hat with field flowers framing the face.
