Many Attracted To Sales, Talks At Community House

Garden Club Week, sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, lived up to the hopes and expectations of the committee responsible, leaders reported today.

Mrs. Henry W. Thiede, education chairman, enlisted the cooperation of the art classes of Pierce, Adams, and Holy Name schools, in the making of the posters. A flowering crabapple tree was given to the student doing the prize winning poster from each school. Joan Shatta was the winner from Holy Name school, Laura Lawson from Pierce school and Elizabeth Cobb from Adams school.
