Patricia Shuell's Engagement Told

At a family dinner on Sunday, the engagement of Patricia Shuell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shuell of Brookwood, Lone Pine road, to Daniel Mann, Jr., son of Mrs. Daniel Mann of New York City, was announced by Miss Shuell's sisters, Mrs. F. B. Saunders and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, Jr.

Patsy attended Brookside and Kingswood schools at Cranbrook and is a graduate of the Masters School, Dubba Ferry, N. Y., and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston.

Her fiancé graduated from St. Paul's School and Yale and has recently received his discharge from the USNR, in which he served as a lieutenant.

Plans are being made for a summer wedding.

GIVE FINE CONCERT

The concert given by the Pierce School Glee Club and other groups on Monday evening in the school auditorium was enjoyed by a large crowd. These children have been supervised by Miss Elizabeth Gettel, director of music for the Birmingham elementary schools.

Leonore Snyder And Luell LaVern Collins Are Wed

The First Baptist church in Royal Oak was the scene Saturday, May 18, of the marriage of Leonore Snyder, daughter of G. D. Harcomb of Royal Oak and the late Mrs. Harcomb, and Luell LaVern Collins of Park street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collins of Grosse Pointe. The double ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock before an altar banked with palms and baskets of spring flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown featuring white satin bodice with log-ottom sleeves, a round neckline with a yoke of illusion, and a full net skirt. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a bonnet with clusters of beaded orange blossoms at either side of her face. She carried white carnations, cascaded with lilies-of-the-valley and white satin streamers, and wore an antique lavallere.

Mrs. Ralph McAllister of Berkeley, the bride's sister, was given in orchid with a nylon bodice and full net skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and wore carnations in her hair.

The bridesmaid, Phyllis Hurcomb of Royal Oak, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Harry Bailey of Grosse Pointe, the bridegroom's sister, were dressed in yellow and aqua gowns respectively and carried matching bouquets of carnations.

Guests Collins, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the guests were seated by Leonore's brother, George Snyder of Royal Oak, and Luell's cousin, Joseph Collins of Birmingham.

A wedding dinner was held in the evening at the Country Inn.

Society Editor Is Leaving

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Eccentric Subscriber:

For the past seven months I have been in the reportorial staff of the Birmingham Eccentric, filling the job of society editor.

As my husband, Lieut. Carl E. Rhodes, is expected home from Japan this summer, I will turn my duties over to Judy Sappington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington of Arlington drive, on June 1.

Many of you may know Judy and perhaps some of you have met her when she substituted for Marjorie Walton last summer, while Margie was on vacation.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your cooperation and patience with me, and to ask that you continue to give the same aid to Judy so that she may enjoy the job and the people she meets as much as I have.

Sincerely yours,

Joyce Webster (Mrs. Carl E.) Rhodes.
