Farm on Lusher road as the site of a proposed city well. Mr. Egbert told the Commission that the state geological survey had suggested this site as one promising a good flow of water. A well drilled east of East Lincoln, near the edge of the city, he said, had thus far failed to produce the necessary flow for a suitable city water supply.

The locals tallied two markers in the second game as Dick Decker walked and Chuck Murray ran safe on a fielder's choice. Ron Kordenber singled, scoring the runner and making the score 4-2. The Big Reds tallied again in the fifth as Zauer singled and was driven in by Pletcher Dick Cain.

Dan Grigg then strung out Birmingham and scored on an error. With two out in the last inning Grigg pitched to the City of Oakland, in Chicago.
