

Hi-12 May Party Is Well Attended

High Twelve's big event of the year, the May Party, was given Monday night at the Community House. Approximately 175 attended the dinner and danced to the music of Victor Webeck's orchestra.

Mel Davey was the caller for the square dance and the guests were entertained during dinner by Elsie Gould, the strolling accordionist, by Bob Hall, rhymer, and by the Ford Mercury Band.

One feature of the evening was the presentation of favors to all the women present.

The Birmingham Barbershop Quartette provided the entertainment for one intermission and a reception line was formed during the evening for the purpose of acquainting the new members with the old.

Harold Chapel was chairman of the arrangements for the affair and his committee included Andy R. Bailey, A. C. Berges, Derwood B. Gamble, Lloyd M. McQuater, Harry A. Budge, William A. Sinsley and George G. Stetman.
