Dr. Brooke Stabler To Be Speaker At Pierce P.-T.A. Thursday

Dr. W. Brooke Stabler, headmaster at Cranbrook School for Boys will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Pierce School Parent-Teacher Association on May 9 at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. He has chosen as his subject "Religion and Education."

A special invitation is extended to all residents of Birmingham to attend this meeting, whether they are members of the association or not.

Students of Miss Ella Cross' sixth grade will present a number of folk songs and dances under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Gottell, music director for the Birmingham elementary schools.

There will be a brief business meeting and installation of officers preceding Dr. Stabler's address.

This meeting will be called promptly at 8 o'clock due to the children taking part in the program and those in charge say they hope all parents and friends will be in the auditorium on time.

Attention is again called to the Summer Round Up Program to be held at Pierce School, Wednesday, May 22, at 2 o'clock. Mothers of children entering kindergarten are requested to phone Gerald White, principal of Pierce School and give the names of their children entering the school for the fall term.

SOCIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon.

"Aladdin And The Wonderful Lamp" To Be Given By Children's Theatre

A rub of the magic lamp and an astonishing genie will spring to life when the play, "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp," is presented on May 18 at the Community House. The production, put on by the Children's Theatre of the American Association of University Women, will have two performances, the first at 10 a. m. and the second at 2 p. m.

The play follows the famous Arabian Nights tale of the tailor's son, Aladdin, his meeting with the villainous magician, and his journey into the fabulous cave where he discovers the magic lamp and begins his adventures.

Mrs. William Milligan, who is in charge of the production, announces the cast of characters as follows: Aladdin, Mrs. William Kegel; Mother of Aladdin, Mrs. John F. Gordon; Princess, Mrs. Calvin Patterson; Noona, Mrs. Douglas Hoard; magician, Mrs. B. F. Horn; genie, Mrs. Richard Brown; Kalissa, Mrs. Lawton Tabor; guard, Mrs. Robert Yongling; Sultan, Mrs. Stanley Saunders; Slaves of the Lamp, Mrs. James Gillon, Mrs. Donald Howarth and Mrs. S. S. Pierce.

Miss Margaret Clifford will direct the play, assisted by Mrs. James Abbott. Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Calvin Dennison and Mrs. W. A. Bourbonnais, while Mrs. George Green and Mrs. William Carter have charge of the costuming. Mrs. Gilbert Gove is taking care of the sale of tickets and Mrs. John Rathbone is arranging for the ushers.

Stage and property managers are Mrs. John Eckenrode, Mrs. Alan Loufbourrow, Miss Pattie Main and Mrs. F. C. Thomas.

The parts of the Shitan's subjects will be played by students from the 11A class of Baldwin High School: Betty Marsh, Mary Powers, Marilyn Mecum, Pat Mullin, Betty Ann Pierce, Julia Spillman, Jean Lange, Natalie Knight, Kit Schaefele and Nancy Bell. Bill Holmes and Pete Dixon, also from Baldwin, will assist the stage managers.

Tickets will be on sale at Adams, Pierce, Quarton, Holy Name, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Village schools through Friday, May 17.

Poppleton P.-T.A. Officers Installed At Friday Meeting

The May meeting of Poppleton Parent-Teacher Association was held Friday evening at the school. With Mrs. Vivian Moore, retiring president, presiding.

Following the reading of annual reports by committee chairmen, secretary's and treasurer's reports, and the completion of old and new business, the officers for the ensuing year were installed by Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Jerold Oaks is the new president; Miss. Merlin, teacher vice-president; Mrs. Gerald Elmore, mother vice-president; Victor Munson, father vice-president; Mrs. Louis Pechota, secretary; Mrs. Steven Fox, treasurer; and Mrs. Ira McDonald, historian.

P.-T. A. plans are in the making for a box social and dance in June, proceeds for Boy Scouts, and a penny supper and bazaar in October. The executive board met with Mrs. Pechota last night to appoint a committee for bazaar work. Seventy-two paid P.-T. A. members were reported by the membership chairman, Mrs. Elmore.

On April 26, a Stanley Products party was given at the school.
