Guest Organist

Arthur Pointer, head of the Conservatory of Music at Oberlin College, Ohio, will be the third guest artist in the series of organ recitals given by the First Baptist Church of Birmingham, appearing Monday, Nov. 25, at 8:30 p. m.

Arthur Pointer is one of America's foremost organists and the Church extends a cordial invitation to all Birmingham's music lovers to attend his concert.

Obituary

Estlyn M. Hall
Estlyn M. Hall, 2647 Pembroke road, died suddenly of a heart attack in her home last Saturday evening.

Born in Memphis, Mich., May 10, 1898, she married Wellington Hall in Memphis May 30, 1925. She was a graduate of Memphis High School and Michigan Normal College, and was a member of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, the Royal Oak Shrine No. 31, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, the Order of the Eastern Star, No. 220 of Birmingham, and of Piquette Hill Chapter of the D.A.R.

She came here ten years ago from Royal Oak, and was a commercial teacher at Clawson High School. She had previously taught at Baldwin High School and the Pontiac Business Institute.

Surviving, besides her husband, are a daughter, Carole, and a son, Gale, both at home; her father, Helmer Gilbert of Fowlerville, Mich.; three brothers, Charles J. of Memphis, Helmer, Jr., of Flint, and Karl of Fowlerville; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Gilbert of Fowlerville and Mrs. Clifford Shue of Pigeonwing, Mich.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. from the Manley Bailey funeral home with the Rev. Arnold Funkh officiating. Burial was in Memphis.

Mrs. Geraldine Beers
Mrs. Geraldine Beers, 345 Arlington drive, died Sunday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following a long illness.

She was born Oct. 7, 1907, in Frederick, Okla., and had resided in Birmingham since 1940. She was corresponding secretary for the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Surviving besides her husband, Royce, L., are three sons, Leland of Berkeley, Robert of Birmingham and Paul, Walter of the U.S.A.; a daughter, Mrs. B. E. Neubert of Lino, Italy; her mother, Mrs. A. J. Shelton of Cheotah, Okla.; a brother, Boyd Fox of Oklahoma City; and a sister, Mrs. W. F. Lott of Wewaka, Okla.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday from the Bell funeral home with the Rev. Joseph Q. Mayne officiating. Burial was in White Chapel cemetery.

Rev. Boyce to Speak
The Rev. Rudolph Boyce, former pastor of Embury Methodist Church, now director of the Wesley Foundation at Wayne University will be guest speaker at Embury Methodist Church this Sunday at 11 a. m.

Rev. Boyce left the Birmingham church five years ago, after serving the congregation for two years.

Local Man Elected President of Golfers
Arthur B. Baynes, owner of Lancaster Hills Golf Club of Birmingham, was elected to the presidency of the Metropolitan Golf Association last week. The MGA is an organization of public golf courses. Baynes is the first owner of a nine-hole golf course to be so honored.

Frank Syron of Pontiac Country Club was elected vice-president of the association and Edward Atlas was re-elected secretary and treasurer.
