

Joseph Kollys to Host Housewarming Party

A pink and white color theme will be carried out in the Wing Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kolly when they will entertain 100 guests Saturday evening at a formal housewarming party.

A six-piece orchestra will provide a musical background for the party, and later in the evening a buffet supper will be served.

The Kollys recently moved here from Detroit.

Service Club To Meet

The Community Service Club of Oakland County will meet Wednesday, Nov. 20 for dinner at 6:30 p.m. at the Hotel Pontiac in Pontiac.

The guest speaker will be Judge George E. Hartwick, who will speak on "Social Problems with Special Reference to Problems of Divorce."

Anyone interested in attending the event will be welcome. Melvin C. Hart of Birmingham is president of the organization.

Engaged

Virginia Lee Flatman

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Flatman of Spring road, West Bloomfield, have made known the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Lee, to Everett B. Austin, Jr., son of Kenneth E. Austin of Pontiac.

During the war, Everett served with the Army infantry.

There are no immediate wedding plans.

St. Dunstan's Guild To Present GBS "Arms and the Man"

On Friday and Saturday evenings, St. Dunstan's Guild (of Cranbrook) will present its second open performance of the season, "Arms and the Man," by George Bernard Shaw.

The play, a satire on war, was written in 1904, but its lines are even more significant today. Since its first performance, it has been a favorite in both professional and amateur theaters.

It was set to music as "The Chocolate Soldier," and yet it remains on the required list in most college English courses.

With this performance of "Arms and the Man," St. Dunstan's Guild will inaugurate its new stage at the Cranbrook Pavilion. The settings have been designed by the students of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, and are planned for quick changes. The artists responsible for the settings are Bob Collins, Bill Whitney and DeForest Ebbels.

Members of the cast include Mrs. Hubert Davis, Nelly Beveridge, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, David Walker Lee, Temple Licklider, E. A. Schirmer, John Knecht and Mrs. Newcomb.

The play has been under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Hill with the assistance of Eunice Disette. Working on details are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Knecht, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Avon L. Newcomb, Mrs. Waldemar Adams Jr., Mrs. Sheldon Noble and Mrs. Frederick Booth.

Two Local Women Aid in Opening of Veterans Gift Shop

Two members of the local American Legion Auxiliary unit were present at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital in Battle Creek when the Auxiliary Legion Auxiliary Department of Michigan opened the "Gift Shop" there Nov. 5 for the second year.

Baynes, rehabilitation chairman, and Mrs. Lee Mohr, vice-president of the local unit, were among the 21 auxiliary members from the 17th district.

During the coming month, veterans at the hospital will visit the Auxiliary's Gift Shop and will be able to select gifts to send home to their families for Christmas.

The Auxiliary Units of Michigan provide the new gifts, assist the veterans to make the selections, wrap them in Christmas papers and ribbons, and prepare them for mailing, all free of charge to the veterans.

Last year packages were mailed to every state in the union and to Canada, Sweden and Poland. For the 1,107 veterans who visited the shop, 2,821 gifts were wrapped. This year the totals are expected to be much greater.

The regular monthly meeting of the local Auxiliary will take place Nov. 26 at 8 p. m. in the Legion Home on South Woodward avenue.

There will be an open house to which all Gold Star mothers, wives and sisters are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Now that Christmas is approaching, Commander Chet Brown of the Charles Edwards Post No. 14, The American Legion, has announced that The American Legion will again this year sponsor its "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave" program.

"Millions of men and women in uniform have returned to their homes and been restored to their families, and for them it will be Christmas indeed," he said. "But what of those who still fight on? Fight against the crippling wounds and diseases of war, against pain and despair and dragging time? What of the great army for whom the battlefield has become a hospital, 1,000,000 of them in Michigan alone—what will Christmas mean to them?"

The "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave" program in Birmingham is under the direction of Legionnaire Ray M. Cook, assisted by Richard H. Dewey. They will serve as a receiving station for Christmas boxes for the Michigan boys in hospitals, and will also work on packaging individual boxes with their Post Committee.

The boxes from Birmingham will be distributed by the State organization to war veterans in every Michigan hospital.

Details of the local program, and a suggested list of gifts for inclusion in the boxes, will be announced later by Cook.

FINE APPAREL FOR GENTLEMEN

Cpl. Donald Carlisle Home On Furlough

Corporal Donald Carlisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carlisle, 1569 Buckfield, is now at home with his parents on a 30-day furlough from active duty with the Marine Air Corps at Pusan, Korea. He received word of his promotion to Corporal while in Birmingham.

Carlisle enlisted in the Regular Corps in September of last year, and was transferred to the Air Corps three months later. He is now a radio gunner. This is his first home since his enlistment. While in China he observed the national celebration of Birth Day. No one, he said, had an individual birthday in China — everyone celebrated on one day.
