Quarton Observes Education Week

Yesterday evening Quarton school was open to parents who were invited to come and observe the work being done there. The special reason for the invitation was the observance of American Education Week and was sponsored by the school and the Quarton PTA.

Frank Whitney, director of athletics in Birmingham schools, was the speaker at the general meeting held in the auditorium. He explained how a physical education plan is formulated and told of his plans for future physical education.

He introduced two elementary physical education teachers, Frances Jeanne and Howard Sumers. Following the general meeting, parents had the opportunity to visit the classrooms to view work done by the children. Room mothers acted as hostesses.

Mrs. Edward Nelson of Riverside drive was hostess to mothers of Quarton School's fourth grade mothers at a tea in her home Tuesday. She was assisted by Mrs. John Carmichael, and Mrs. Seifert. PTA president, was present for the discussion of PTA plans which took place.

The mothers of fifth grade students at Quarton School will be entertained at a coffee at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Madison H. Fowler of Pilgrim road. Mrs. Fowler will be assisted by Mrs. Edwin V. Clarke.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Couple In Detroit Church

Candles lighted St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit last Saturday eve for the wedding ceremony which united in marriage Margaret Virginia Wetherald and Paul E. Minnells, were former Birmingham residents.

Best man was the groom's brother, John R. Earle of Birmingham, and seating the guests were William D. Annet of Cleveland, Robert A. Straub of Ann Arbor, Charles S. Kennedy and William G. Slocum, both of Detroit.

For the large reception at the Detroit Athletic Club which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Wetherald chose to receive her guests in an evening-length gown of royal purple silk crepe, fashioned with brief sleeves and a V neckline, while her hat was of fuchsia feathers and her flowers, orchids, which matched her gown.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Earle wore a long gown of turquoise silk crepe, which had long sleeves, a peplum, and a V neckline. Her orchids were of American Beauty shades.

When the couple left by motor for New York City, the new Mrs. Earle was wearing a two-toned wool suit, the black skirt topped by the surf jacket, trimmed in black Persian lamb. She wore a Persian lamb trimmed hat and the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

On their return, the young couple will make their home in Detroit.

Among the out-of-town guests was another brother of the groom, George Earle II of Maine. An extensive list of guests from Birmingham, Grand Blanc and Cleveland were also guests for the occasion.

The new Mrs. Earle is the sister of Mrs. John R. Earle of Birmingham, whose husband is the brother of the groom.

Local League Group Meets at Booth Studio

Monday evening the Henry S. Booth studio was the scene of the November meeting of the Oakland County members of the Junior League of Detroit.

'Sun-Sational'

Something new for the resort season is this backless halter, called the "sun-sational" by its designer, M. R. Fleischman. The bra has a plastic bicycle clip motif around the bottom, with drapery to hold top snugly in place. You don't have to unfasten shoulder straps to get an even tan—that's the idea.

Local PTA Members Attend Institute Held In Ann Arbor

Several local members of Baldwin and Adams PTAs attended the Parent Education Institute held in Ann Arbor last week. The institute, sponsored by the extension service of the University of Michigan and the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers took place Nov. 5, 6 and 7. Featured speakers were Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Overstreet.

Among those attending from Birmingham were Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese, Mrs. Harold Chalk, Mrs. Paul J. Connelly, Mrs. Arthur McDonald, and Mrs. T. Hollister Mabey.

Others were Eleanor Carmody, Mrs. Fraser E. Pomeroy, Mrs. Henry F. Moore, Mrs. Lawrence Van Camp, Mrs. William H. Jackson and Mrs. Richard Sneed.

Troth Revealed

Barbara Jane Sauer

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Sauer of Pine road have recently announced the betrothal of their daughter, Barbara Jane, to Carlton Smith Roesser, whose parents are the Waldemar L. Roessers of Royal Oak.

Both young people attended the University of Michigan where Barbara was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and her fiancé a member of Theta Chi fraternity. During the war, Carlton was in the Army and served 10 months in the European theater.

The date for the wedding will be announced later.

SERGEI RACHMANINOFF:

As pianist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, I. Stokowski conducting, in his own beloved "Piano Concerto No. 2"

By Victor—$6.15

As guest conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony playing his "Third Symphony"

By Victor—$6.15

As pianist in "Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini," with the Philadelphia Symphony, Stokowski conducting

By Victor—$4.05

No Christmas gift so delights the heart of a music lover as an addition to his or her musical library. Rachmaninoff's contribution to musical history is outstandingly great, not alone for his symphonies, but also for his concertos, tone poems and symphonic songs.

The New York Philharmonic, conducted by Arturo Rodinski plays his "Second Symphony," as only they can.

By Columbia—$7.20

Gyorgy Sandor is guest artist with the New York Philharmonic for Rachmaninoff's "Concerto No. 2," with Arturo Rodinski conducting.

By Columbia—$6.10

Rachmaninoff's great tone poem—"Isle of the Dead," is superbly done by the Boston Symphony, Serge Koussevitzky conducting—$4.05

Again the "Concerto No. 2," with Arturo Rodinski, pianist, as guest artist with the NBC Symphony, Vladimir Golschmann conducting.

By Victor—$6.15
