Michigan Mirror

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By GENE ALLEMAN

Governor-elect Kim Sigler and his Republican state administration at Lansing are going to have a financial headache of unprecedented proportions after January 1.

All because of Michigan's Nov. 5 atomic bomb—the voters' stunning approval of the sales tax amendment and the $270,000,000 veterans' bonus.

How to solve the problem of operating state public services on revenue short of two-thirds of the state sales tax—the traditional Michigan goose—is sure to give Governor-elect Sigler and his advisers plenty of worry. The state legislature will have to wrestle with the problem in the 1947 general session, certain to be convened early in January.

Legislators will be confronted with two tough alternatives. First, should state services be drastically curtailed or eliminated in order that the expenditures of the next fiscal year (starting July 1, 1947) may be brought into balance with the state's shrinking revenues?

And if so, what services should be lopped off or dropped? Should the state educational institutions—University of Michigan, Michigan State College and all the others—be granted additional funds to carry on their plans, completion of needed classroom buildings, and other improvements long overdue in the advent of the Great Depression in 1932?

How about hospital additions? Twenty more wards are needed at the state prison at Jackson? Well, the list is long. Someone must make a decision; someone must make a priority. We sympathize with the legislature trying to work this one out. It's not going to be easy.

Second, should the State of Michigan enact new taxes? The $270,000,000 veterans' bonus, for example, will be financed chiefly by state bonds. These bonds, if sold at 1 1/2 per cent interest and retired in 20 annual installments, will cost well over $300,000,000. The current cost alone would be $42,000,000.

While the amendment limits a bond issue to $270,000,000, it provides that any person who served in the armed forces between Sept. 16, 1940, and June 30, 1946, and who was a resident of Michigan at least six months prior to entering the service, and who served for more than 60 days shall receive a month. This bonus will be computed on the basis of $10 for each month of domestic service and $15 for each month of foreign service. The maximum payment is to be $500.

However, additional payments are also authorized. Surviving dependent relatives (husband, wife, children, mother, father, brothers and sisters) of a service man or woman who died or who shall die hereafter from service-connected causes incurred between Sept. 16, 1940 and June 30, 1946, shall be paid an amount equal to the difference between what he has received and $500.

How much will all of this cost the Michigan taxpayer? The Michigan Public Expenditure Survey estimates the bill at $343,000,000. It believes that the general fund will be called upon to supply $31,500,000 as an ADD-ED amount to the $270,000,000 bond issue. The $42,000,000 interest cost rounds out the all-over sum.

In presenting this information, we wish to remind our readers that the Michigan Public Expenditure Survey is a study of the state's financial condition. It is not a forecast of the future. It is a statement of the present.

B'ham Legion Post Marches In Royal Oak
Men and women of the Birmingham American Legion Post and Auxiliary met Armistice Day morning with the Frank Wendell Post of Royal Oak for breakfast and parade, held from the Royal Oak Post home, according to Capt. Brown, post commander. Brown addressed members of the two posts at the breakfast on the morning of Armistice Day. That evening members of the Birmingham post met at the Post home at a stag party for members and friends. Refreshments were served following the 8 p. m. opening.

Deadline Extended
Applications for permanent positions with the U. S. Post Office at Birmingham will be accepted through today, according to Mrs. Gladys Helms, civil service representative. The date was extended from Oct. 31 to Nov. 14. Positions open are those of clerks and carriers.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENT
Ruffner, Street Improvement, Woodward to Grant
Notice is hereby given that Special Assessment Roll No. 285, heretofore made by the assessor for the purpose of defraying the cost of construction of a drainage sewer on Woodward street, from the intersection of Woodward street to the intersection of Woodward street and Woodward street, approximately 400 ft. in length, and the construction of drainage structures and appurtenances on Ruffner, between Woodward and Grant, is now on file in my office for public inspection.

Notice is also hereby given that the Commission of the City of Birmingham will meet in the Commission Room in the Municipal Building in said City on Monday, the 18th day of November, 1946, at 2 p. m. to review said assessment, at which time and place opportunity will be given to all persons interested to be heard.

IRENE E. HANLEY, City Clerk, 15-34

length, their widows (if dependent). This fund was made possible by state surplus of revenues over expenditures during the war boom.

It was the original thinking of state legislators, back in 1943, that this reserve fund would take care of the needs of veterans in the immediate post-war years and that the question of a state bonus could be postponed until Congress arrived at a decision of whether a federal bonus was going to be paid. Congress has already authorized more than 12.5 BILLION DOLLARS in federal expenditures for GI benefits; a federal bonus is certain to be considered in the near future.

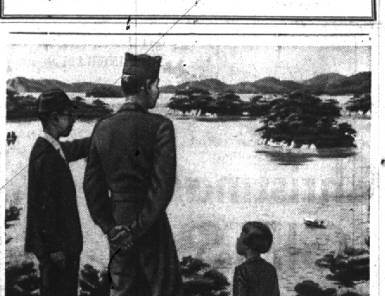

If the imposition of NEW or INCREASED taxes collides with the promised 1947 "recession," the problem will become more acute than ever.

Instead of reducing the state sales tax from 3 to 2 1/2 per cent as Sigler suggested during the fall campaign, he may have to ask for an increase in this or other taxes at a time when pocketbooks are already badly pinched to cover the rising cost of living.

Of course, a legal way out would be for the state supreme court to hold the new amendment invalid. A suit is sure to be filed by someone.

One thing is sure. Lansing is going to have quite a show!
