John R. MacGregor Wed To Royal Oak Girl Saturday
The First Presbyterian Church of Royal Oak was the scene of the wedding ceremony Saturday night which united in marriage Marjorie Jean Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Mackay of Royal Oak, and John Richard MacGregor, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. MacGregor of Ann Street.
In addition to the candles, the church was decked with white chrysanthemums and palms for the occasion. The Rev. Robert S. Steen was the officiating minister. The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with an overskirt of a draped neckline and fitted and had sleeves. The full skirt ended in a length veil of illusion tulle from seed pearl coronet and she carried a bouquet of red roses and baby mums, tied with white satin ribbon.
Joyce Perry of Royal Oak, as maid-of-honor, wore a gown of pink brocade made similar to the bride's gown. Her pink Dutch cap had a finger-clip with attached, and her flowers were Tullipman roses and baby mums tied with pink streamers.
Best man was Frank Huff of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Birmingham, and seating the guests were Gerald Racine of Royal Oak, the groom's brother, Robert of Royal Oak and Bruce of Birmingham, and David Mackay of Royal Oak, brother of the bride.
Following the service a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Mackay chose for her daughter's wedding a burgundy wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of carnations and white lilies. Mrs. MacGregor wore a street length dress of dusty pink crepe with black accessories and corsage like that of the groom's mother.
The young couple are on a wedding tour to Niagara Falls and will live in Ferndale on their return.
Solist Moneta Stewart, who sang "Through the Years," "The Rosary," was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Mayvonne Diehl-Moore.
Out-of-town guests for the ceremony came from Lima, Ohio, Steubenville, Ohio, Lapeer, Rochester, Hillsdale, Highland Park, Detroit and Birmingham.
