Community House 10 Sponsor Recreation Program Classes

The Community House, after many requests has announced that several classes will be held under its sponsorship.
The first, a class in hooked rug-making, will be for both beginners and advanced rug-makers, and will include instruction in making, dyeing, design and following patterns. The class, which will be limited to 10 persons, will be under the leadership of Mrs. T. C. Rigdon of Pontiac. The time will be Thursday mornings from 9 to 12.
The second class, knitting for beginners, will be instructed by Mrs. Harold Chalk and will be held Thursday from 7:30 to 10 p. m. The class, which will be limited to 10, will cover simple construction, following pattern directions, and simple designing for infants' wear, Christmas presents, etc.
A cooking class will be held under the direction of Mrs. Robert Sutton of the Community House. The class, also limited to 10 persons, will decide what types of cooking they wish to learn. The class will meet Friday evenings at 7:30.
Classes will be established for both beginners and advanced contract bridge players. Time will be dependent on the number of people interested and the instructor available.
Folk-dancing classes will meet Thursday evenings once a month. Miss DeGrille of the International Institute will be the instructor, and Mrs. Charles Richards will be accompanist. Miss DeGrille will teach simple dances from all countries. Couples or single persons may come.

Holy Name Football Dinner Honors Coach, Team And Fathers

The Holy Name PTA was the sponsor of a banquet last night at Alumni House in honor of the football coach, Rev. Fr. Ralph Barton, gridiron squad and their dads.
Toastmaster John Birney introduced Rev. Fr. John Lynch of Clawson as the guest speaker of the evening. Father Lynch coached teams to state championships when he was an Ann Arbor resident.
Eugene Skiffington spoke for the dads, and Captain Eddie Stenger said a few words for the team and presented Father Barton with a gift from the boys in appreciation of the work he has done.
Mrs. Edward Stenger was general chairman of the evening, and assisting her on the food committee were Mrs. Dominic Caputo, Mrs. Charles McIntyre, Mrs. Richard Hindley and Mrs. Richard Roach, with Mrs. Eugene Skiffington in charge of the invitations.
Mrs. Gregory Frederick, Mrs. Ambrose Dupuis, Mrs. A. F. Fontaine, Mrs. Hugh Lenane, Mrs. James O'Connor and Mrs. Zink, all mothers of boys on the team, assisted in serving the dinner.

St. James Boys' Club To Hear Soccer Talk

The Boys' Club of St. James Episcopal Church will meet at Pierce Field next Sunday at 12:30 p. m.
The group, which is composed of boys from 9 to 15 years of age and is sponsored by David Kotlchut, will have as its guest speaker William Waters of Westham, London, England, who will speak on "Soccer—Both English and Scottish."
His talk will be followed by a scrimmage, with Waters giving pointers on the game to the boys.
Waters, who has served in both World Wars and with the British Foreign Legion, was one of the first to promote American Baseball in England, and has trained and played with the Western Soccer League and played with the Essex Soccer League, for which he received an athletic championship medal.

Benefit Party Held For Polio Victim

A benefit card party for Mildred Wright Littleton, a polio victim since last September, was held Saturday night at the Poppleton School.
A sum of money consisting of donations was presented to Mrs. Littleton by a group chosen from those attending the party.

Visits Californians

While on a recent leave, Lieutenant William Daeschner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daeschner, 412 Berwyn road, visited the home of Mrs. George Wilcox in Pasadena, Calif., and her daughter, Jane. While at this former Birminghamite's home, he saw Anne Ely, also of Birmingham, who is now a guest at the Wilcox home.
