Home or Business
THIS is a 6 room home, in fine condition, close to the business section and zoned for business. The lot is 60 by 93 which will accommodate 3 stores 20 ft. wide. The house is a good one and will pay the taxes or house your family until you build. Priced at $12,000, this is a better bet than stocks for your surplus money.

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the double feature houses to show the Grade A effort in the middle of the evening's entertainment so one could have a choice of seeing the B flopperoo without having to gulp one's dinner or get home past midnight? How about it, Mr. Holsh?

SOME of these days a supermarket or patio shopping center will be looking for this Hunter Blvd. block just below Maple. With 113 ft. on Hunter (there's more available) there is road frontage on two of the other 3 sides. The old house on it will pay the taxes in the meantime and the price is the lowest along Hunter for its length. $12,000 invested here will bring a real return as Birmingham grows. Buy it for your children.

We can help you—let us prove it!

Obituary

Austin R. Parks

Austin R. Parks, 548 Pierce street, died last Wednesday following a brief illness.

He was born in Troy township June 9, 1868, attended Birmingham schools, and had lived here all his life.

He is survived by one brother, Edgar A., of Birmingham.

Funeral services were held Friday from Bell funeral home at 2 p. m. with the Rev. W. Glen Harris officiating. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Stella McAllister

Mrs. Stella McAllister, 1036 Haynes street, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Young, last Friday afternoon, following a long illness.

Born Jan. 1, 1875, she married Charles McAllister in northern Michigan in 1892, and had lived in Birmingham and Southfield the past 13 years, living previously in Royal Oak and Bad Axe.

Surviving are her daughters, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Thomas Carr and Mrs. Earl Nelson, both of Southfield township; and a son, James of Midland, Mich.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Manley Bailey funeral home, with burial in Roseland Park cemetery.

Lions Club Wives Learn About Wine

When wives of the local Lions club met at the home of Mrs. A. L. McNaughton, 2251 Yorkshire, last Thursday evening, they had as their guest Captain V. A. Tareff, owner of the Wine Shops, Inc., who gave a short lecture on wines. He was introduced by Leon Ricelli, manager of the Birmingham branch.

This Is 50-50

Pierce school was assured of a new electronic record player Tuesday evening when the Board of Education agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost for such an instrument. The other half of the amount will be met with funds from various Pierce school organizations.

The player will be used in Mrs. Elisabeth Ruffner's music appreciation classes.
