Obituary

John B. Anderson
John B. Anderson, 81-year-old father of B. C. Anderson, 550 Suffolk avenue, died suddenly at the home of his son last Thursday afternoon. He was the husband of the late Joe Anderson.
He had been visiting at the home of his son for the past three months, coming from Long Beach, Calif. Surviving are his sons, Dr. J. B. Anderson of the Fourth Presbyterian church in Chicago; General E. Anderson of the U. S. Army Air Force; B. C. Anderson of Birmingham, and his daughter, Mrs. Matthew Simpson, of Long Beach, Calif.

Funeral services were held last Saturday at the Presbyterian church, Junction City, Kansas, and burial at the Highland Cemetery there. Bell Funeral home was in charge of arrangements here.

George H. Elliott
George H. Elliott of Detroit, father of Wilbur H. Elliott, 815 Madison avenue, died suddenly in St. Petersburg, Fla. He was sales representative of the Elliott Sales Service Company, which he founded in 1901.
Surviving besides his son Wilbur, two other sons, Ralph of Royal Oak and Russell of Cleveland; two daughters, Hattie and Mrs. Fred Hawkins of Detroit. Services were held yesterday at 2:30 p. m. from the Bell funeral home with the Rev. C. B. Allen of the Metropolitan Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery, Detroit.

Mrs. Esther Hillman Redfield
Mrs. Esther Hillman Redfield, 2691 Mill road, Franklin, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vera B. Seymour, Friday morning. She was born Jan. 18, 1872, in Hazelton, Iowa, and married the Rev. William D. Redfield in South Dakota in 1900. She moved from Great Neck, N. Y., to Franklin three years ago.
Surviving besides her daughter, Mrs. Seymour, are three sons: the Rev. Myron of Alberta, Canada; L. N. of Seattle, Wash., and P. H. of Madison, S. D.; two other daughters, Mrs. A. W. Grigg of Franklin and Mrs. V. J. Conklin of Sunny Side, Wash.

Services were held Monday at 10:30 a. m. from the Franklin Community Church with the Rev. William Lovejoy officiating. Burial was in Franklin cemetery. The Bell funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Mary A. Rule
Mrs. Mary A. Rule, 22930 Twelve Mile road, Southfield township, died suddenly Saturday, following a brief illness, at Harper Hospital, Detroit.
Born July 30, 1862, in Chatham, Ont., she was the widow of James Rule, and had lived in Southfield the past six years, moving there from Pontiac.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John H. Brooks of Southfield township; a son, J. Duncan of Cleveland, Ohio, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
Services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bell funeral home with the Rev. R. P. Liston of the Southfield United Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was in Roseland Park cemetery.

Fred W. Long
Fred W. Long, 4257 Quanton road, Bloomfield township, died suddenly at his home Monday morning.
Born in Bawls county, Missouri, Aug. 20, 1897, he married Jewell Standley Dec. 12, 1926 in Royal Oak, Mich.
Surviving besides his wife, are two sons, Lawrence and Howard; one daughter, Geneva, all at home; two brothers, Edward of Warren, Mo., and Elmer of Hannibal, Mo.; four sisters, Mrs. L. G. Graves of Petty, Mo., Mrs. Lillie Young of Slater, Mo., Mrs. Irene Johnson of Clawson, Mich., and Mrs. Love Page of Marselle, Ill.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Bell funeral home with the Rev. William Lovejoy of the Franklin Community Church officiating. Burial will be in Franklin cemetery.

Joe Leslie Statte
Joe Leslie Statte, 20245 Ward avenue, Detroit, former Birmingham resident, died Wednesday morning after a long illness in Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.
He was born Aug. 1, 1885, in Calumet, Mich., married Marguerite Williams in 1920 in Flint, and was a member of Genesee Masonic Lodge Post 174. He was formerly a member of the Birmingham Lions Club, and was a World War I veteran.
He was Michigan manager for Hertz Drive-it-yourself division of General Motors, and had moved to Detroit two years ago after residing in Birmingham for about 11 years.
Surviving besides his wife are two sons, Joe, Jr., and William J.; two daughters, Marjorie and Elaine, all at home. Also surviving are two brothers, Theodore and Earl, both of Flint; three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Crites and Mrs. Theresa Emory, both of Flint, and Mrs. Charles Sullivan of Calumet.
Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Bell funeral home, with burial in White Chapel cemetery.

Springdale Still Open

If fair weather still continues, Scott Hersey, superintendent of Springdale Park, indicates that the city-owned park may remain open for some time yet.
"This year so far has been a very successful one," he stated. "I believe that when we will close the park and tally up all figures, we will find that this has been its most successful season."

Last year, he said, the park did not close until November 11.
