

Rev. Joseph Mayne To Speak Today At Baldwin Assembly

By Larry Maloney

An assembly highlighted by talk, movie, and play, will be held today at Baldwin with a view to the betterment of the relations and overcoming of racial discrimination and prejudices.

The Rev. Joseph Mayne, of the Round Table Conference of Christians and Jews, will speak on "The People on My Street," covering many present day social problems. Following this, the popular Frank Sinatra will appear in the movie, "The House I Live In," dealing with an actuality of the topic of Rev. Mayne.

The program is to be concluded by the third-hour speech class presenting the play, "Meet Your Relatives." The playlet, also developing the theme of the assembly, is student directed by Joan Gove and accompanied by Don Coulter.

Included in the cast are Leon Thurston, George Campbell, Jim Holden, Legie Clark, Vincent Hayes, Tom Mills, Denny Converse, Jack Neil, Clifford Young, Janet Walker and Cynthia Hadley.

'Open House' For Baldwin Parents

To acquaint parents with members of the faculty and their teaching methods, the annual Parent-Teacher Association "Open House" will be held Nov. 12 at eight o'clock in the auditorium.

The program, the topic of which is "International and Inter-cultural Relations"—will open with a skit, "Meet Your Relatives," given by Miss Ruth Hull's third-hour speech class.

The cast includes Jack Nell, Janet Walker, Cliff Young, Cynthia Hadley, Tom Mills, Denny Converse, Vincent Hayes, Jack Moses, George Campbell, James Holden, Legie Clark and Leon Thurston. The accompanist is Don Coulter and Joan Gove is assistant director.

A movie, "The House I Live In," will be followed by a brief welcome by Ross A. Wagner, principal. Parents will then meet in home-rooms where they will receive their schedules of ten-minute classes.

Guides chosen from the Student Congress will be stationed in the halls to assist parents in finding their classrooms during the short four-minute intervals.

New Honor Society Members Will Be Inducted Nov. 19

The induction assembly of the National Honor Society will be held November 19 at 10:30 in the Baldwin auditorium.

All members will be on the stage during the assembly, and those who have special parts in the program are Bill Eustis, chairman; Bob Brungbauer, herald; and Janet Walker and Mary Poynter.

The four speakers will be Charles Murray, leadership; Knight Houghton, scholarship; Penny Penfield, service; and Joan Gove, character.

Ernest Anderson, president, will sound the keynote of the program and Roland Watson and Frank Lyndall have charge of the properties and ushers.

Miss Merle E. Taylor and Mrs. Dorothy C. Perry are the faculty advisers of the Baldwin chapter of the National Honor Society.
