Baldwin, Kingswood Girls Each Win One Field Hockey Game
By Jeanne Lange
Honors in two field hockey games played by Birmingham and Kingswood last week at Hill field were divided when the local seniors won 3-1 and the Kingswood juniors were victorious by 1-0.
The senior game got off to a fast start with Birmingham's center forward, Ellen Van Wagener, scoring early in the first half.
The second half saw a Kingswood goal by Carol Mason and two home team goals by Pat Mullin, bringing the final score to 3-1 in Birmingham's favor.
After a scoreless first half in the junior contest, Nancy Bergdahl tallied for Kingswood giving it a 1-0 victory.
Refreshments prepared by Martha Moody, Marilyn Davey, Ginny Hood, Mary Lou Mulholland, Diane Helgeson and Carolyn Karch, were served in the school cafeteria after the games.

Mental Authority to Speak at Baldwin
"Miracles of the Mind," a program consisting of telepathy, mental feats and power of suggestion, will be presented at Baldwin Nov. 12 by Dr. Franz J. Polgar, noted mental authority.
Dr. Polgar has amazed audiences all over the country with his unusual program. Several articles have appeared on him in the Saturday Evening Post. He is a member of the American Platform Guild.
