

James Gunn Engaged To Wed Detroit

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Mitchell of the Art Center, Detroit, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joanne, to James Walsh Gunn, son of Mrs. Ford L. Gunn of Dorchester road, and the late Mr. Gunn.

Joanne is a graduate of Emma Willard School and Smith College, and James is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi. During the war he was with the 15th Air Force.

They will announce their wedding date later.

Business Women Elect Officers

Following their dinner held Thursday, Oct. 3, in the Community House, an election of officers for the 1946-47 season was held by the members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club.

Returned to her office as president was Marjorie Estes, and that of vice-president, Kathleen Jones.

New officers are Thelma Zimmerman, secretary; Dorothy Mints, treasurer, and Myrtle Bird, in charge of the Mary Griffith Loan Fund.

VFW Auxiliary To Hold Tea Oct. 17

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Birmingham Post 2645, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is opening the fall program with a tea to be held at the Community House Thursday afternoon, Oct. 17, at 2 o'clock.

Following the tea, there will be a short program.

All members, wives of the post members and others who are eligible to membership in the group will receive invitations this week.

For the next few months, the organization will stress membership, and all wives, daughters, sisters, and mothers of soldiers, sailors, and marines are eligible, and are invited to join the group in the work they will be doing.

Mrs. East Moody of Purdy street is membership chairman and may be contacted for additional information.

Mrs. J. E. Williams Will Head Annual AAUW Book Sale

Mrs. Joseph E. Williams is general chairman for the 13th Annual Book Sale, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, which is to begin Monday, Oct. 14, at the Edison Building and will continue through Saturday, Oct. 19.

This sale has become an affair of such importance that book lovers not only from Detroit and Grosse Pointe, but from all over the state, plan to attend, it is reported.

In order to accommodate those who find it impossible to attend during the daytime hours, which are from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. each day, the sale will continue on 9 in the evening on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights.

As in the past, many rare books and first editions will be found by those attending the sale, which encompasses books of all kinds—fiction, old and new, non-fiction, children's books, cook books, magazines, records, sheet music, games and patterns.

Mrs. Williams will be assisted by the following as committees: heads: Mrs. Harry Gruber, in charge of sales; Mrs. A. D. Farnie, rare books; Mrs. G. E. W. Aldrich, transportation; Mrs. William K. Carter, marking; Mrs. Doris Thomas, posters, and Mrs. Calvin Dennis, publicity.

To assist in selling, Mrs. Gruber has appointed special chairmen for each day: Mrs. Stanley Saunders will be in charge on Monday; Mrs. Raymond Bover heads the sales force for Tuesday; Mrs. William Colt Allee heads the Wednesday group; Mrs. H. G. Wood, Thursday; Mrs. Edward Laird, Friday; and Mrs. S. S. Pierce is Saturday's leader.

The same accuracy that tested BOMB SIGHTS now tests YOUR WATCH

During the War, the utmost precision was observed to assure "pin-point" bombing accuracy.

Today, the identical basic timing standard used in testing bomb sights is used here to check the accuracy of your watch when our repair work is completed.
