Holy Name PTA Lays Plans For Coming Events

Mrs. Richard Roach of Birmingham Boulevard opened her home last Thursday to a breakfast meeting of the executive board of the Holy Name PTA. She is president of the organization which met for the first time this season to plan their new fall program and to organize the different committees for integrated work.

The Rev. Ralph Barton acted as moderator at the meeting. Plans were laid for the school's Halloween party and parade and for an educational party on the subject set for Oct. 21. Also on the agenda for this semester is a reading shelf to be installed at the school. Books will be donated by PTA members and families of the students. The plan was presented by Mrs. W. J. Shotka, library chairman.

Also discussed were ways and means to provide funds to send delegates to the State convention for this year, and the filling of a Thanksgiving basket for the school faculty.

New officers for Holy Name PTA include those previously mentioned and Mrs. David Williams, vice president; Mrs. James Melluish, budget and finance chairman; Mrs. A. P. Fontaine, treasurer; Mrs. Donald McGuffey, attendance chairman; Mrs. William F. Carroll, membership chairman; Mrs. Howard Casper, parliamentarian; Mrs. F. A. Lake, program chairman; Mrs. B. T. Goulin, secretary; and Mrs. V. Schrock, adult education chairman; Mrs. A. C. Mason, school chairman; and Mrs. D. E. Rossman, scout chairman.
