

Starr Commonwealth Tea Held Last Friday

The annual Starr Commonwealth benefit tea, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank L. Klingensmith, was held last Friday at the Community House. There were 40 tables of bridge and 300 guests gathered for the tea that followed. The tea tables covered with dark gray-green cloths, were decked with garden flowers and silver candelabra. One of the boys from the Commonwealth played his own piano composition, and four others told their own case histories, summed up by one who explained what the Commonwealth had done for him. Floyd Starr, founder of the Commonwealth, was also presented on the program.

Wedding Service Read In Bloomfield Hills Home

Mrs. Rachel Antilla Lauckner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. August Antilla of Highland Park, became the bride of Edward C. Lauckner at a ceremony performed in the Bloomfield Hills home of the bride Monday evening at 7:30. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Lauckner of Detroit.

The Rev. Walter Heyme of St. Trinity Lutheran Church of Pontiac was the officiating minister. For her wedding Mrs. Lauckner wore an amber crepe gown with side-draped skirt and bow, moderate delman sleeves and a round neckline. She wore a corsage of white orchids, and her amber colored hat had a smoke-white feather pom-pom.

Mrs. August J. Antilla of Highland Park, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a brown crepe dress styled similar to the bride's, set off by a corsage of feathery pink chrysanthemums. Her hat was brown, trimmed with a velvet ribbon and soft pink feathers.

Evelyn Potere To Marry Ohio Man

At a dinner party Sunday honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Roosen of Pierce street, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Potere of Villa road announced the engagement of another daughter, Evelyn Marjorie, to Ben C. Hipskind of Dayton, Ohio, who is a son of Mrs. George Hipskind, also of Dayton. The news was revealed by match-covers and napkins with "Evelyn and Ben" printed on them. The couple are planning a Spring wedding.
