J. D. Wade Takes Bride At Saturday Evening Service

At a wedding ceremony performed last Saturday evening at the All Saints Episcopal Church in Brooklyn, Mich., Mary Jane Messimer of Jackson became the bride of J. D. Wade. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Messimer of Jackson, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wade of Webster street.

The Rev. Frank Ireland was the officiating minister at the 8 p. m. candlelight service. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a portrait gown of brocaded satin, fashioned with a court train and long pointed sleeves. Her full veil was of illusion and was caught to a tiara of orange blossoms. White streamers fell from her bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, which was carried on a white prayer book.

As matron-of-honor, Mrs. William Messimer of Brooklyn, sister-in-law of the bride, was in a sheer floor-length gown of blue, and her hairdress was of blue ostrich tips. She carried a colorful bouquet of American beauty roses. Best man was William Messimer of Brooklyn, brother of the bride.

Luncheon, Business And Talk Featured By Garden Club

Mrs. N. F. Hadley of Riverside drive was chairman of the day last Monday when a large gathering of members met at the Community House for the first meeting of the season which was held by Birmingham branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Preceding the business meeting, luncheon was served buffet style and tables were centered by flowers which the members had brought from their gardens.

Mrs. Walter A. Anderson, Mrs. Henry J. Benn, Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. Lewis Clark Dibble, Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, Mrs. H. C. Shoemaker, Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mrs. W. A. Sisney and Mrs. Hadley were those who had a hand in arranging the centerpieces.

Mrs. A. H. Knorr poured at the tea table, for which Mrs. C. D. Hartaufer, who was co-chairman with Mrs. Hadley, had arranged a cornucopia centerpiece.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Lett R. Eis presented Mrs. Nevin C. Barnes, who spoke on "Color Combinations in Home Gardens." Her talk was illustrated with colored slides.
