

Barnum Turns On Its Power And Rolls To 25-0 Win Over Royal Oak Reserves

By Garry Hughes
 Demonstrating a scrappy, high-powered team, Barnum school steamrollered Royal Oak to a 25-0 triumph at Pierce Field last Wednesday night.
 Letting no grass grow under their feet, the Spartans brought the ball to the shadow of Royal Oak's goal in the opening plays of the first quarter.
 Paul Spuzlock, hard-driving full-back, marched across for Bar-score. Failing to kick the conversion, Barnum led, 12-0.

 Royal Oak held Barnum's eleven from scoring in the third quarter till a fatal fumble gave Barnum its third touchdown at 18-0.
 Not yet beaten, the Acorns rose to drive within one yard of the Spartans' goal. An unfortunate fumble by Royal Oak gave Barnum possession of the ball.
 In the last minutes of the game Eugene Hammond broke through for a spectacular 70-yard run. Olin converted and Barnum won its second victory, 25-0.

THIS PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD

Mankind's greatest enemy—Disease—cannot be conquered by the sword. On the contrary: History is filled with occasions when Disease defeated armies and caused nations to lose wars. But Disease bows in defeat before your doctor's mighty pen. With a few strokes of it, he can write prescriptions for life-saving medicines which we, as his ally in the battle against illness, stand ready to fill with infinite care. Never before in history have the united sciences of Medicine and Pharmacy been able to offer so much health assistance to the afflicted and the aged—to all who enlist the aid of their doctors in keeping well.

Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Richard Francis Stannard, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stannard of Bloomfield, received a ribbon badge and a standing heroism in the line of duty" when he volunteered for the Lathrup townsite and was the first pilot flew over Japan. He was a lieutenant (j.g.) aboard the carrier "Yorktown" when it was torpedoed and sank in the hands of the Japs. A 1943 graduate of U of D. Stannard majored in Business Administration and is now with the Bell Telephone Co. in Toledo, the third generation to be associated with that company.

Mrs. R. E. Elias and Mrs. Lee R. Baker, both of Saratoga Blvd., were co-hostesses at a bridge luncheon at Devon Gables, Thursday. The first course was served at the Baker residence and the guests played cards at the Elias' home next door. Seated at the table at Devon Gables were these guests: Mrs. Roger Baker, Mrs. Earl Doig, Mrs. Henry Torrance, Mrs. Kenneth Crow, Mrs. L. A. Brisbois, Mrs. Carl Bush, Mrs. Edwin R. Blake, Mrs. W. J. Howard, Mrs. Robert Marshall, Mrs. George Burnham, Mr. H. H. G. and Mrs. John Diederich and the two hostesses.

Individual baby cottages marked places for 15 guests Wednesday evening at a shower for bride-elect Jane Howard of Burlingame avenue, whose marriage will take place Saturday. The hostess was Mrs. Walter J. Howard of Lathrupham boulevard. The refreshment table was covered with cream colored lace and centered with a low arrangement of calendulas and blue fall asters in a crystal bowl with figurines at either side, and tall yellow tapers tied with yellow tulle bows in crystal candlesticks at either end of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Diederich of San Rose drive and children, Susan and Karen, will move to Los Angeles, Calif., about Nov. 1. They sold their home last week to a Boston purchaser after having lived in the townsite the past five years. Their departure will mark the first separation of the Diederich family. A farewell dinner party will be given by their parents, the John Diederichs, on Sunday at six o'clock at the Fox and Hounds. Mrs. Walter J. Howard of Lathrupham boulevard, sister, Mrs. John Giannan of Garden City, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Charles Diederich of Detroit, will be present.

At women's club meetings held last week these announcements were made: The Junior dances will continue on Friday evenings, in the school auditorium; Three Flags Chapter, D.A.R., will have a Country Fair Oct. 20, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Children's clothes, novelties, aprons, toys, crochet, and baked goods will be displayed. The public is invited. An old fashioned dance will be held in the school at 8:30 p. m. Nov. 15. The November women's club meeting will have as guest artist a concert accordionist.
 The Southfield Goodfellows have set $500 as their goal for the Christmas season. On Dec. 11 they will have a Goodfellows paper sale.

 He'll Never Live It Down
 The most embarrassed sergeant of the war was discovered in Memphis. The brassy, three-striper suddenly found himself equaled in a milling crowd of 125 little Girl Scouts that had just pulled out of a passenger train.
 Naturally, there had to be some buck private around to witness the scene. "Too-hoo!" yelled one group to the crimson-faced sergeant, "so that's the outfit you belong to!"
