U. of M. Women To Hold Benefit Tea And Fashion Show

The big event for University of Michigan alumnae and their friends throughout the Detroit area will be the fashion show and tea being planned by the Alumnae Council for Oct. 28, to be held in the Statler Hotel ballroom at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The show is to be staged by the J. L. Hudson Company and entire proceeds will be given to the work being done for women at the University.

The Birmingham group of University of Michigan women has already pledged to contribute to the fund, and has decided to concentrate on supporting this event as its fund-raising project for the year.

Heading the local committee is Mrs. Cornelius Harper, and assisting her are Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham, Mrs. Kingsley Brown, Mrs. William Gordon, Mrs. Jay Hanna and Mrs. Fred R. Hunter, Jr.

Others are Mrs. Lee E. Joelyn, Jr., Mrs. Robert F. Kohr, Mrs. W. Calvin Patterson, Mrs. W. Clifton Randall, Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, Mrs. Ralph Scheel, Mrs. Max Tunnicliffe, Mrs. Robert Waitt and Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson.

Jean Kirby, Donald Flynn Exchange Vows Saturday

White chrysanthemums graced the altar of Holy Name Church Saturday for the ceremony uniting in marriage Jean H. Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kirby of Oxford, Mich., formerly of Bloomfield Hills, and Donald Joseph Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn of Pierce street.

The Rev. Father Ralph V. Barton performed the 12:30 p. m. service. For her marriage Jean wore a two-piece powder blue wool suit, with a collarless V neckline. She chose a navy blue picture hat, navy accessories, and a gardenia corsage.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Robert Noel of Berkeley, who wore a fuchsia gabardine suit, black picture hat and accessories, and a corsage of pink chrysanthemums.

Robert Noel of Berkeley was best man, and William Bronsing of Birmingham, brother-in-law of the groom, acted as officiant.

A wedding breakfast for the immediate families at Adrian Cottrell's followed the ceremony, and the young couple was honored at an open house at 4 p. m. that afternoon in the Ridgedale avenue home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hadden.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride wore a pale pink gown.

Ruth Shain Class To Hear Report On Eastern Forum

When Ruth Shain of Pierce street returns from a week in New York City this Sunday, her class in international relations Tuesday, Oct. 22, will benefit from her experiences as a delegate to the Annual Foreign Policy Association's forum, which is being held this week in New York, headed at the association's headquarters there.

At the class's first meeting she will tell of the events attended at a delegate from the Metropolitan Detroit chapter of the association and will emphasize the results of interviews with representatives of foreign countries assembled for the United Nations Conference.

The textbook which will be used in Mrs. Shain's course is by Dr. Vera Micheles Dean of New York and is entitled "Russia, Menace or Promise?" Dr. Dean has been a speaker in Birmingham before the Community Forum audience and for the AAUW.

falling leaves from autumn books

And as leaf after leaf falls before your eyes, you will sense anew the contentment and genuine pleasure of reading good books. It will be especially true this autumn when the publishers are presenting such interesting-stimulating new books as have now been released.

Make your book selections conveniently and unhurriedly. On the many book-laden shelves and tables at LaBelles you will find, as usual, the important new books of all publishers.

Green Lake Women To Present "Little Town Hall" Series

The Green Lake Woman's Club of West Bloomfield Township is sponsoring a "Little Town Hall" series of six lectures which will begin during the winter season at the Westlake Clubhouse on Commerce road. Three of these meetings will be held in the afternoon and three in the evening.

First on the series is Hazel Pedkinpaugh Dunlop of the J. L. Hudson company, who will speak on "Table Decorations and Floral Arrangements," Oct. 17 at 2 o'clock.

Nov. 14, the speaker will be Dr. Katherine Greene, child psychologist and head of Sherwood School. Beginning at 2 p. m., her talk will be on "The Hope of the American Family."

The speaker for Feb. 11, at 8 p. m., will be Thomas I. Starr, editor whose topic will be "Lincoln: Successful Failure."

The last feature of the series will be a spring fashion show, to be presented March 14 at 2 p. m. by the Ernst Kern Company.

These lectures are open to the public. Tickets can be secured from Mrs. Frank G. Greene of Commerce road, Green Lake, Pontiac, who is sales chairman.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Burton F. Bingham of Inkster, Mich., announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Anne, to Kenneth E. Godfrey of Dayton, Ohio. The ceremony was performed Oct. 11 at 4 p. m. in the Christian Church in Greenville, Ohio.

The new couple will make their home in Dayton.

Eastern Star To Meet In Ferndale

The Oakland County Association, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual meeting Friday, Oct. 18, at the First Methodist Church of Ferndale as the guests of Ferndale Chapter No. 466.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. and business and elections will be in order at the morning session, followed by dinner at the Baptist Church and the Eastern Star Temple. The afternoon session will include the installation of officers and a varied program.

Committees for the year will make their annual reports and each chapter will report on the year's activities.

Miss Doreen is the retiring president and will preside over the meeting.

Adams Square Dances Begin Saturday Night

The first in a series of six winter dances, sponsored by the Adams School P.T.A., will be held Saturday, Oct. 26, at the school. They will begin at 9 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gougouer are general chairmen for the dances with Mr. and Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley and Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Meyer assisting.

Callers will be the Lee Brennan of Detroit, accompanied by the same musicians who played last year for the dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cobb, who have planned the series since its inception as a feature of the Adams adult education program, have announced that blue jeans, plaid shirts and informal attire of any style or color will be the order of the evening.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.
