Cutright-Kramer Nuptials Held In Christ Church
The Rev. William S. Hill of Christ Church Cranbrook performed the Saturday evening candlelight service which united in marriage Joan Claire Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kramer of Bloomfield Village, and Carl D. Cutright, Jr., who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Cutright of Grandmont road, Detroit.
A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mrs. Kramer chose a gown of white tulle with a deep off-the-shoulder illusion yoke, the edge of which was embroidered with seed pearls, as was the poplin on the very full skirt. The gown had long pointed sleeves, and the double veil of illusion was gathered to a satin coronet, entwined with seed pearls. Her bridal corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.
Donna M. Kramer of Birmingham was her sister's maid-of-honor, and her gown was of teal-blue faille, made with a V neckline, cap sleeves, and a full skirt. In her hair were yellow baby mums, and her bouquet was of the same flowers. She wore long blue lace mitts.
