

Ladies Night Party

The Birmingham Lions Club held their autumn ladies' night party last night at Forest Lake Country Club. It was a dinner-dance with guests attending in hard-time costumes in keeping with Halloween. There were fifty couples in attendance. Roland W. Reese acted as general chairman for the affair.

Rev. Victor Brown Is Guest Speaker

The Reverend C. Victor Brown will be the guest preacher at Christ Church Cranbrook Sunday, Oct. 27, at both the student service and the regular service of morning prayer at 11 a. m. Prior to his present position as chaplain at Union College, Schenectady, New York, he was for nine years on the faculty at Vassar College. Regular Vesper services will continue Sunday, Oct. 27, at 4:30 p. m. at Christ Church, Cranbrook, the first half of the program devoted to a carillon recital by August Mackelbergh, carillonneur at the Belle Isle Peace Tower, and the second part to consist of short meditation and early instrumental music. E. W. Hill, organist; Axel Magnuson, violinist and William Casoy, flutist, will be guest artists in the last part of the service. The Carillon Recital will include an improvisation by Mackelbergh, "Carillon Pedals," "Andante," by Gluck, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "The Sly Little Fisherman," and the hymn "Ye Watchers and Ye Ones."
