

At long last A&P's meat men are cutting up again... cutting up meat, that is! And are they happy! You'll be, too, when you see the tender, juicy cuts in our refrigerated cases. Don't expect miracles, though! Even A&P can't pull steaks, chops and roasts out of a hat on a few days notice. It takes time to get cattle from ranges to our Meat Departments. Consequently, you may not be able to get just what you want when you want it. But you can get meat. And before long we'll have all the meat you can eat... in your favorite cuts. In the meantime we offer these top-quality cuts at prices that compare favorably with those prevailing elsewhere. Come in and see for yourself!

Round Out Your Menu With A&P's FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES!

In our big Produce Department you'll find a grand assortment of flavorful young vegetables to accompany your meat course... and luscious, ripe fruits to top it off. Rushed to your A&P from leading growing areas, they're all at the peak of freshness. Take home a basketful!

Methodist Recital Set for Monday Night Shepherds To Hold Halloween Party

Glen C. Stewart, instructor of Organ and Theory at the Alvin College Conservatory of Music, will be guest artist in the second of a series of five organ recitals presented by the First Baptist church of Birmingham. His recital will be held at the church Monday, Oct. 28, at 8:30 p. m. Stewart has received his Master's degree in Music from the University of Illinois and has studied further at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, Oxford University and Leeds University in England and Columbia University in New York City.

He has selected several pieces by Bach as well as the famous Fugue in E-flat major for the program. Also included will be a Chorale by Brahms; Benedictus by Rowley; a sonata by Borovick; and the outstanding work "Tu es Petra" or "Thou art rock, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against thee," by the American composer Muir.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shepherd and their guests will celebrate Halloween with a costume party and midnight buffet to be held in the recreation room of the Shepherd home on Kensington drive on Oct. 31.

Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. F. Melvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. John McKee, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ferguson, and Mrs. Edwin E. Deer.

Others will be Mr. and Mrs. G. Jennings, the Robert Aldriches, the Newell McCuans, the Robert Muzys, and the Philip DeBeaubiens.
