Will Take Place At Rally Scheduled For Monday, October 21

When the Birmingham YMCA gets under way for its fall season with a rally at the Community House, Monday Oct. 21, it will be consolidated with the Detroit branch.

The gym rally will be introduced by the Y's new secretary, as yet undesignated. The secretary was appointed to fill the position left vacant by the recent death of Robert Lumsden, former Y.M.C.A. secretary, who died early last fall.

Plans for the year have been disclosed yet, but the committee will probably launch a new program, and will sponsor many other interesting events for young folks in Birmingham, according to Dr. Ormond.

This is the editor's daughter speaking:

Not so long ago someone wrote a book called "The Presidential Election of 1948" by Kim Sigler or GRA to rewrite this book, the first chapter to be changed.

Read this: The sign on the door of my daughter, Kim Sigler, September 3, 1946, was "Y.M.C.A. Club."

Men, We'll Look Like an Artist's Palette If We Give In To Designers

There seems to be an insidious attempt on the part of somebody who's named "the designer" to find it equally refreshing to discover people who are interested in their clothes.

History Up-to-Date

Sliger is an earnest student of history, and in speaking, he often paves the way for bringing home a point by recounting an episode or event from the past.
