To Delight Any Child ... to please a grown-up Toddelite "outwits the night"
 More enchanting than Aladdin's Lamp, this intriguing night light, in the form of a lamb or a dog, glows with rainbow colors to soothe and charm every child. Toddelite provides just enough glow in the nursery to please the child and keep mother from stumbling around. Educational ... a real "personal" pet for a youngster to adopt for his very own. Variety of colors interchangeable to give unusual effects ... one of Toddelite's many outstanding features. Toddelite also makes an excellent night lamp ... ornamental and practical for many purposes. A gift that anyone will cherish and enjoy continuously. Comes complete, ready to plug in.
