19-2-30 Group Is Fun Center For Local Residents

By Elizabeth Giles
Every year within the 19-2-30 age group is extended a hearty welcome to come down and taste an informal evening in the Ranch Room of the Community House. Every Tuesday and Thursday, starting anywhere from seventy-three to eighty-three, the quorum is formed.

Membership qualifications for joining are a friendly grin, good sportsmanship, and an interest in having a good time. Tuesday evenings are planned parties whereas Thursday night is more quiet when persons entertain themselves with the aid of, course, of two pool tables, two ping pong tables, and a hay ride.

Some of the activities thus far have been a successful mixer, a talent show, and a hay ride. Roger Cummings starred in "Little Red Riding Hood" but not to be outdone were Bob Siles, George Bagwell, Don Ollshress and Fred Mason, all dressed as fennecs. Claire Cummings, the magician, consented to entertain with rabbits, but was a thoroughly confused audience.

Robert Eade Takes Bride At Ceremony By Candlelight

Candles lit the Franklin Community Church last Saturday evening for the wedding of Marie Winifred Heckel, daughter of Mrs. Edward G. Heckel of Detroit and the late Brigadier General Heckel, and Robert J. Eade, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Eade of Suffolk road.

Just the immediate families were present at the ceremony, at which the officiating minister was the Rev. James Wright, who had been the groom's chaplain overseas. Given in marriage by her uncle, Leewood Roberts of Franklin, the bride was gown in white satin, fashioned with long, pointed sleeves, full skirt, with a brief train. The yoke of lace around the sweetheart neckline had been on the wedding dress of Bob's great-grandmother, and the crown of lace which held in place the fingertip veil of Illusion, had been on the gown worn by Marian's great-grandmother. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations centered with orchids.

The bride's only attendant was Lois Enden of Lake Orion, who was gown in sky blue net, with "Little Red Riding Hood" but not to be outdone were Bob Siles, George Bagwell, Don Ollshress and Fred Mason, all dressed as fennecs. Claire Cummings, the magician, consented to entertain with rabbits, but was a thoroughly confused audience.

Quartern School Mothers Gather During Week

Several teas have been planned for the mothers of Quartern School. At each tea, discussions have been planned on PTA plans for the coming year, and also mothers are to be reminded of the school's open house, which will take place at the school Nov. 13.

Mrs. Arthur Hudson of Pleasant street, assisted by Mrs. James mothers today at breakfast, and next Tuesday Mrs. McCord Mulock will assist Mrs. Henry Forster, Jr. of Bingham road, at dessert luncheon at 1:30 p. m. for mothers of the third grade.

Mrs. Quincy Crater of Wadlington road, assisted by Mrs. Robert L. Sauer, will be hostess to fourth grade mothers at a dessert luncheon to take place next Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. LeRoy Kiefer, chairman of the room mothers, will pour.

Mrs. E. G. Surridge of Glenhurst road was hostess to first grade mothers yesterday, and was assisted by Mrs. Richard Seales in the home of Mrs. J. Raymond Scolaro of Glenhurst road.

Cooperative Group Elects New Board, Plans Square Dance

The Birmingham Cooperative held its first annual meeting last Thursday at the Community House.

Other business of the meeting included the election of the new board of directors. Harold Chalk, Lawrence Van Camp and Annie Laurie MacIntyre were elected for three-year terms of office; Mrs. Harden DeVue, Mrs. Ellwood Hill and Bill Atkinson, two-year terms; and Norman Weston, Eero Saarinen and Arthur McDonald for one-year terms.

The alternates are Hollister Mabley, Mrs. Eldon Beaul and Andrew Watson.

"For bringing the good, old days up to date, there is nothing like a square dance to promote good fellowship," says Mrs. Wilson of Johnson, general chairman of the dancing party to be sponsored by the Cooperative group in the Community House on Saturday, Nov. 9 from 9 until 12 p. m.

$136,000,000 SURPLUS and BALANCES
JUNE 30, 1946

AVOID FURTHER LOCAL TAXES by redistributing the Sales Tax!

Note "YES" on Proposal No. 2

On June 30, 1946, the State Government had more cash on hand than the year's total collection of the sales tax. . . Much of this surplus has been set aside for future spending by the State, including State institutional buildings and improvements, highways, and veterans' benefits. There is $21,500,000 surplus not earmarked. More than sixty percent of the State's operating funds come from sources other than sales tax.
