Bloomfield Village School To Have Halloween Party

Children and parents of Bloomfield Village School will celebrate Halloween's evening with a costume party.
Each child has prepared for the party by carving a pumpkin jack-o'-lantern, and prizes will be awarded for the three best.
The grand march will begin at 7:30 p. m. and prizes will be given to those wearing the most original, the funniest, and the prettiest costumes. Judging them will be Mrs. Ernie Sheen, Karl Crawford, John Slater, and William Cartwright.
Movies will be shown, and afterwards cider and doughnuts will be served by Mrs. A. A. Appleford and her committee.
Mrs. Howard Green, president of the Parents Club, is extending a cordial invitation to all parents to attend "Open House" at the School Wednesday, Nov. 13, in recognition of American Education Week.
For this occasion, Mrs. M. S. Rosenbeyer, program chairman, is planning an interesting program.

Maternity Cotton

Melon-colored chambray styled for mother-to-be.

The days are happily over when a mother-to-be depended on a smock for all practical purposes. New York's designers as of this season are showing maternity cottons the dress pictured, in melon-colored chambray, is typical of the prettily-styled and yet utilitarian Fall cottons seen in the new collections. Like many other tubular frocks, it is adjusted with elastic at the waist.

Kingswood Juniors Sponsor Annual Autumn Festival

"Alice in Wonderland" was the title of the skit which started off the annual Autumn Festival held last Saturday evening by the junior class of Kingswood School, Cranbrook.

In the title role of "Alice" was Molly Bibby, with Joan Mock in the part of the "Mock Turtle," Dodo Booth as the "Griffin," and Margie Barton as the "Rabbit."
Marie O'Donnell, as "Dingbat, the Singing Cat," led the dance and singing number of the Cats, while Molly Foskett and Irene Bard led the Rainbow Ballet, and Pat Wilcox, the Chinese Dance.

The parts of the witches were taken by Shirley Cousins, Dora Folk and Suzanne Tushbant.
The skit brought "Wonderland" up-to-date, ending with a scene in a mystery drug store.

Following the entertainment there was a "midway" in which all classes participated, and an informal dance.

Pat Chase, junior class president, was in charge of the yearly affair. Faculty members aiding the students were Mrs. Edward Chapman, Mrs. Maurice Cochran, Mrs. Basil Brown, Frances Merritt, and Luella Houser.

Sue McMullen was chairman of the committee who worked on the decorating details, and her assistants were Beatrice Vogel, Elizabeth Lind, Martha Lovell, DeDe Walters, Judy Schirmer, Joyce Howard, Shirley Cousins and Nancy Berglund.

Working out the entertainment plans were Alison Clark, chairman, Nancy Allen, Pat Wilcox, Elizabeth Smith, Ruth Dixon, Joan Fritsch, Wilma Robbins, Sally Driscoll, Marie O'Donnell, Molly Foskett and Joan Jones.

Joyce Wood was in charge of the booth committee, and her assistants were Jeanne Carlgan and Dodo Booth, while Jo Scherer, an advertising committee head, had the aid of Gretchen Farquar, Pat Holden, Margie Barton, Anne Bennett and Bunny Day.

Football Banquet To Be Held Dec. 4

General chairman of the affair is Mrs. W. L. Boese, and assisting her as co-chairman is Mrs. S. Merion Adams.
Handling the tickets will be Mrs. Colin Campbell, chairman, Mrs. Walter H. Bodie and Mrs. D. A. Murray. Mrs. Stanley G. Boynton is in charge of invitations, assisted by Mrs. John F. Katter, while placards will be taken care of by Mrs. J. K. Carson, chairman, and Mrs. Nan Dugan.

Working on decorations will be Mrs. Richard L. Campbell with the assistance of Mrs. M. H. Smiley, and Mrs. L. I. Thurston will be aided on hospitality by Mrs. J. M. Anderson. Mrs. Ray Filkins is in charge of pies.

Speakers Featured At Recent Legion Auxiliary Meeting

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Birmingham American Legion Post No. 14, held their monthly meeting last week at the Legion Hotel.

One of the two guest speakers for the evening was Blanche Brackley, local veterans' counselor, whose talk revealed much of the work done by her office, such as assisting veterans in their problems of housing, filing pension claims, insurance adjustments and other matters.

Mrs. Hazel May, president of all auxiliary units in the 17th district, (Oakland county) also spoke, her topic covering the vast amount of work to be done in the coming year, including welfare work, visiting veterans' hospitals with gifts, helping to finance children's homes (veterans' orphans) and the rehabilitation of veterans and their families.

Out-of-town guests at the meeting were Post Commander May and Siple of the Frank Wentland Post in Royal Oak. Mrs. May, speaker, and Mrs. Siple, who is now president of the auxiliary unit of the Royal Oak post; the executive committee of the Birmingham American Legion and their commander, "Clint" Brown.
Refreshments were served in the lounge after the meeting, and plans have been made for future visits to the Birmingham auxiliary meetings by the Royal Oak visitors, with the ultimate aim of "cooperative achievement" to benefit both Royal Oak and Birmingham veterans, which was stressed at the meeting.
