Barnum Team Defeats Hazel Park, 12-6, To Remain on List of Undeclared Teams

By Gerry Hughes

Two long gains proved fatal to the small, scrappy Hazel Park reserves as the undefeated Maroon seconds chalked up a 12-6 triumph. After the Maple line ripped a gaping hole in the Vikings' defense, Jack Pomeroy drove through a 60-yard touchdown run.

Hazel Park then tried a series of running plays, but the Maples' heavy forward wall refused to give ground.

Relying entirely on an aerial offense, Jack White completed a

Dad's Day Programs Now In Production

Programs for the Highland Park football game are in production for distribution on Nov. 8, honoring Dad's Night and Birmingham's great cross country team as well as the first encounter between Highland Park and the Maples.

The program will also include lineups and a story about the backfield of this year's Birmingham varsity besides other informative material. It will go on sale Friday morning.

The staff consists of Rusty Davies, editor; Dave Bostus, business manager; Hugh Quinn, business manager; and Kay Bates and Ruth Radell, sales managers.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Greetings, Gates:
Kilroy was here and helped Annie make her rounds this week end, and he left so worried that he just bet he slept all the way to his next stop. He came in after the senior hayride Friday night just bubbling over with news. Annie couldn't begin to tell you who all he saw there.

While the horses were being put to bed, and the rest of the hay brushed off by the kids over to Pete Greig's house, where the gang danced and munched hot dogs.

Birmingham Meets Port Huron There In League Finale

By John Anderson

The Maples take their longest trip of the season tomorrow night when they go to Port Huron to play their last league game of the 1946 football season. The kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 at the new Port Huron stadium.

The Maples did not have a game last week and have had a chance to smooth out a few weak spots and also to get over injuries and bumps.

Port Huron has five returning letters. Two of these, Andy Baugh, end, who was picked for the all-league team last fall, and Jack Richards, guard, were chosen as co-captains by their teammates and will lead their team tomorrow night.

Port Huron has won three and lost three this season, beating Ferrisale last Saturday 6-0 to come to the 500 mark. The Maples will be trying for their third victory against three defeats.

The Birmingham team up until last week was planning on coming home but that has been changed and the boys will stay all night. The athletic club will furnish an after-game supper and breakfast in the morning while the boys will say for their rooms.

Elect New Officers Of Varsity Club

Election of Varsity Club officers was held Friday, the members electing president, Ernest Anderson; vice-president, Leon Thurst; secretary, Stan Boynton; treasurer, Gene Sutton; historian, Jack Hardy; and sergeant-at-arms, Pete Greig.

Another meeting will be held soon to plan projects for this year.

Recreation Of Teachers Lounge

Last week the second hour home-making class under the supervision of Mrs. Gertrude Black, began redecoration of the teachers' lounge.

The group was divided into three groups, each concentrating on a different project.

Drapes are of basket weave material with large stylized gold and white print on a tan background.

The upholstery will be brown with gold piping, and gold with brown piping.

Mrs. Bouck's fifth hour class will soon plan decoration and begin making draperies for Dr. Ireland's office.

The Ranch Room Roundup

By Alice Grant-Watters

The Ranch Room was comparatively empty Friday night with all the 12-A class on a hayride and many of the others usually seen there trying out Jimmy's new set place on Woodward.

Some of the usual gang, George Pope, Lloyd Appell, John Martin, Bud Worde and Bob Erwin were heading up the business till some of the 12-A's and Jimmy's new set place on Woodward.

Students See Movies On South America

A technical film on South American countries accompanied by a commentary from Earl Brinke was the feature of Baldwin's assembly last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Brinke, who resides in Detroit, took the movies while traveling through the southern part of South America last winter. He explained to students and faculty the colorful dress and customs of the natives as the film was being shown.

Pat Sanderson, John Boatford, Shirley Mainland and Larry Maloney make a four-foam victory

Pat Sanderson, John Boatford, Shirley Mainland and Larry Maloney made a four-foam victory over the Birmingham boys in the 30-0 victory.

Kilroy left Sunday with a terrific headache, but still talking about the active week end. When Annie put him on the train, he took the ice bag off his head long enough to tell her that he'll be very disappointed if he doesn't beat Port Huron tomorrow night.

Well, Annie's good, leave now. She'll see you in Port Huron tomorrow night at the game.

Be good now, Annie.

Pete and Mary Peters were playing host and hostess to Jo Laucomer, Bob Hughes, Peggy Gould, Deanne Cramer, Dorothy Adams, Bill Boettcher, Penny Penfield, John Brodman, Marilyn McNutt, Harry Wagner, Logie Clark, Joan Gove, Doc Watson, and slavs of others.

All through the evening Kilroy and Henry Lack snap pictures of the home game.

He sure was surprised when he saw these photos of his hayride Saturday night, so he put his dungarees and hurried out to Train Station where Joy Sloan and Jim McCall were packing the kids on the wagons.

After the journey's end, the kids jumped into their cars and rushed over to Sis Daeschner's house, where Sis and Dave Balkline were ready and waiting for them. Kilroy saw Joan Edwards, Pat Page, Jack Pfeiffer, Ben Drayton, McClelland, Jo Jo Spike, Norman Goddard, Nan Chapel, Jim Norman, Dick Dickenson, Dick Murray, Judy Olson, and Dick Blumman trying to beat the rest of the crowd to the table overflowing with food.

Sunday afternoon he heard a lot of racket over by Fines Field, so he went over, and there he saw the bleachers filled with yelling girls cheering John Bonch, Bob Saffell, Rusty Davies, Jack Pomeroy, Dave Maylen, Ted Herbst, Bob Woodard, Jim McCall, and Dick Adams who were playing a good old game of touch football.

Our team captains were Stan Boynton and Johnny Anderson with the latter's team smashing to a 30-0 victory.

Sports Showup

By Chuck Murray

Congratulations are in order for the Birmingham cross country team which has already begun. Around school there have been rumors of an organized hockey team this year. If anything materializes, there would be an ideal setup as Quanton Lake is so near.

Officially, basketball practice hasn't started, but a lot of the prospective hardware boys have been spending their time after school getting back into shape from last season. That is the enthusiasm that produces championship teams.

Cincy Sachs, immortal name in the high schools of the suburban area, has grimly informed the Birmingham staff that there is little hope for the prize and trophies before next year. It looks as though a lot of tape is going to be needed by the squad to keep their old suits in one piece.

Football fans should get a much more accurate report of the next home games. A field phone has been ordered and should arrive soon. This will enable the public address announcers to get a play-by-play description of the game directly from the field.

A survey by the Bureau of Labor statistics shows that more than two million veterans are employed in manufacturing.
