Sept. 16 Meeting Will Feature Members' Reports

The opening gun for the fall activities of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be general board meeting at the Community House on Monday morning, Sept. 16, at 10:30 a. m. At this meeting all elected officers, appointed chairmen, and their sub-chairmen will be present, according to Mrs. Howard Liverance, president, who also stated, "The League's program is so extensive, operating in national, state and local legislative fields, that many hands are needed to cover the work adequately."

At this meeting, Mrs. Edwin V. Clarke, chairman of the local government committee, will report on the progress made in personally interviewing candidates for Congress and all state offices.

Plan Political Rally

The information obtained from these interviews will be published in bulletin form during October for wide distribution. In line with these election activities, Mrs. Charles Blunt, program chairman, will outline plans for the political rally the League is organizing for its October meeting.

At this same meeting, Mrs. Charles Blunt will tell the time and place for the James Reston lecture to be sponsored by the League October 26. Mr. Reston is the New York Times reporter who spoke at the Dunbarton Oaks today at the Community House.

A second lecture which will be sponsored by the League will be one by Robert St. John on Jan. 13. This lecture will be one of the Community House series. Mrs. Blunt is the series central committee.

mttee, will report on the plans for distribution of tickets.
