

Sea Scout Troop Resumes Meetings

First in a series of weekly meetings for the coming year for members of the Sea Scout Ship Hunter, advance senior scouting activity, will be held next Wednesday, Sept. 18, at 7:30 p. m., at the Community House, Skipper Ben Brewster, 5369 Brookdale, announced this week.

"All members of last year's ship are requested to be present, as well as any other boys between the ages of 15 and 18, whether former scouts or not, and who are interested," Brewster said.

At the meeting, besides Brewster, will be First Mate Richard Brown, 685 Kimberly; Colin Campbell, 655 Lakewood; chairman in charge of activities; Howard Liverance, 545 Surfside, secretary; and Howard P. Estes, 492 Riveroak, representative of the Lions Club, the sponsoring organization for the troop.

Robert Traxler Takes Bride In Pennsylvania

Palms and white gladioli formed a lovely setting, Saturday, Aug. 31, at 11 a. m. in the Parkford Brethren Church for the wedding of Fleurette Steiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford K. Steiner, of Parkford, Pa., and Robert C. Traxler, He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Traxler, of South Woodward avenue, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Traxler and their daughter, Betty, journeyed to Parkford for the ceremony with other friends of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alvin Alderson, an organist of the church. An organ recital of bridal music was performed by Ferdie Malenka, assisted by soloist Ethel Mae Orlip. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white French tulle gown with a short train. A crown of red pearls held in place her finger tip veil edged in lace. She carried an old-fashioned, showy bouquet of white lilies and gardenias.

Maid of honor for the occasion was Miss Rosemary Schway, cousin of the bride, who was gowned in pink net. She wore a matching headpiece and carried an old fashioned bouquet of blue delphinium and baby's breath.

Two sisters of the bride, Nan and Ann Steiner, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pale blue silk tulle, with white and pink rose petals which she scattered before the bride.

Beverly Shannan, as flower girl, wore a gown of yellow silk tulle, and carried a basket of pink rose petals which she scattered before the bride.

Rodney O'Donnell, cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer and William Hutch of Birmingham was best man. James Juhl, also of Birmingham, and Robert Hines of Spring City, Pa., seated the guests.

The bride's mother selected a gown of black, with aqua accessories for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Traxler, mother of the groom, was also gowned in black, with pink accessories, and her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple then left for a week's honeymoon in Northern Michigan, and are now residing in Ypsilanti.

Scouting Program Needs Adult Aid

An appeal for adult volunteer workers to aid in Girl Scout work in Birmingham has been issued by Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy of Yorkshire road, organization chairman.

There is an urgent need for women workers in the Pierce and Adams school district," said Mrs. Pomeroy. "Leaders, assistant leaders, and troop committee members tell me what a wonderful satisfaction Scout work gives."

She urges anyone interested in giving time to help train these girls, to contact her and talk over the various programs.

Adults in the Girl Scout program are meeting in an all-day session "Home coming" Sept. 13 from 9:45 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. in the Community House for training and plans for the coming year.

In Birmingham, at the present time, there are 13 Brownie troops, with 242 girls from 8 to 10 years old, 14 intermediate troops with 340 girls, and one senior troop with 16 girls. There are 131 adults working with these girls.

Anne Ballentine Makes Debut At Afternoon Tea

The cloudy skies cleared Monday in time to christen the David R. Ballentine residence on Linden road for Anne's tea and debut at 4 the afternoon.

In the receiving line with Anne were her mother, Mrs. David R. Ballentine, and her aunt, Mrs. Fletcher Ross.

Anne's hoop-skirted gown was of white marquisette, fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline and a deep bertha of Venetian lace. Her flowers were sweetheart roses and carnations, centered with pale yellow gladioli.

For her daughter's presentation, Mrs. Ballentine chose a floor-length gown of gold crepe trimmed with a deep V neckline of black Alencon lace. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. D. Landi Ballentine, Anne's grandmother, was assisted at the tea table by Mrs. Graham J. Graham, Mrs. F. Farrington Holt, and Mrs. Albert Griffith, and also assisting were Mrs. Howard Walton, Mrs. Henry Hart, and Mrs. Muir W. Lind.

Anne's assistants were Nancy Neumann, Catherine Kemp, Dorothy Walton, Lloyd Isley of Milwaukee, Wis., Carroll Luby of Peoria, Ill., Jeff Bartlett of Lewiston, N. Y., Betty Ball of New Martinsville, Va., and Winifred Mann of Great Neck, L. I.
