Out-Of-Town Couple Wed At Christ Church Thursday

The marriage of Esther Louise Farr to Lewis Edward Hatfield was solemnized Thursday, Sept. 12, in Christ Church Cranbrook, with the Rev. William S. Hill officiating.

Mrs. Lewis E. Hatfield

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Merton Farr of Pasadena, Calif., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Hatfield of Lima, Ohio.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory-tinged candlelight satin. The long bodice was fashioned with a round, long neckline, filled in with ivory chiffon. Around her neck was a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. The straight sleeves were touched off at the wrist with lace and her veil was silk illusion with a stiffened frame of rosepointe lace framing her face. She carried a spray of white stephanotis and orchids.

Matron-of-honor was Barbara Farr-Holt of Hollywood, Calif., and maid-of-honor was Christine Farr, also of Hollywood. They were simple gowns of American beauty fabric with slashed necks and stiff cape sleeves, topped off with tiny larkspur blue half-hats trimmed with blue velvet bows. They carried bouquets of white baby mums and blue delphinium with trailing streamers of ivory.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Kenneth E. Johnson of Des Moines, Iowa, and May M. Carpenter of Chattanooga, Tenn., wore dresses like those of the other attendants, but their hats of a forget-me-not blue instead of the larkspur shade.

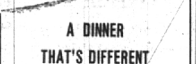

Best man was John W. Hatfield of Dayton, Ohio, and ushers were Richard L. Hatfield and Robert H. Hay of Lima, Ohio, and Robert E. Seabold of Cincinnati, Ohio.

For the reception at "Thornlea," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth, the bride's mother chose a gown of royal blue silk, simply draped, and a hat of magenta flowers. Mrs. Hatfield wore a short-sleeved gown of gray crepe.

The bride's going away outfit was a brown, blue, and white check belted suit, with brown accessories. She wore kolinsky furs and gold jewelry.

Out-of-town guests from Dayton, Ohio, present at the ceremony were Mrs. John W. Hatfield, Mrs. Edward Hatfield, Mrs. Priscilla Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Murka, Margaret Miller, Charlotte Davison, and William Miller.

From Lima came Mrs. Robert H. Hay and Jean Hull, while guests from Cleveland were Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Garbauer and Merton Farr Garbauer.

A DINNER
THAT'S DIFFERENT

Imagine having dinner in a charming old farmhouse built in 1836. Two big fireplaces lend a cheerful atmosphere. Chilly evenings—quaint crackling fires and candle light set the mood for a meal prepared and served in true American style.

Bounteous portions—thick, marinated steaks and plump chickens—ribbit gray—vegetables raised in our own gardens—plenty of home-made rolls, right from our ovens—give old fashioned, courteous service and hospitality.

These are ingredients we mix for your enjoyment in a "dinner that's different" at Twin Hearth Inn.

Dinners 5-8, Sundays 2-7
