

Ahoy...

You're sure to land a beauty in A&P's big Fish Department, for our line of fish and seafood is "really something!" Fresh? You bet! Our own buyers see to that. They meet the fishing fleets right at the docks and pier and rush their catch to your A&P almost before the spray has dried. We've whole schools of fresh-water favorites that are in a class by themselves. And as for seafaring fish... you'll find oceans of 'em in our refrigerated cases.

Obituary

Mrs. Irene Oehm

Mrs. Irene Oehm of 452 Park street died early Saturday morning, Sept. 7, in Harper hospital, Detroit, after a long illness.

She was born Dec. 4, 1892, in Chicago, Ill., and was married to George B. Oehm, who survives her, Jan. 21, 1915, in Baltimore, Md. She had come to Birmingham 11 years ago from Detroit.

Services were held Monday, Sept. 9, from the Bailey funeral home, with the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan of Christ Church, Cranbrook, officiating. Burial was in Roseland Park cemetery.

Ethel M. Murdoch, of 348 Greenwood avenue, died after a long illness Sunday evening in Harper hospital, Detroit.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 8, 1896, she was married in Detroit Aug. 14, 1920, to Clyde A. Murdoch, who survives her. She had come to Birmingham nine years ago from Rochester, Mich., where she was a member of Post No. 172, American Legion Auxiliary. She was also a member of Holy Name Church.

Surviving besides her husband are a daughter, Mrs. Edward E. Bissell, of Washington, D. C., and a son, Stanton W. Lamb, of Birmingham.

Rosary service was held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Manly Bailey funeral home, and funeral services Wednesday at 10 a. m. from Holy Name church. Burial was in Rochester cemetery.

Willard L. Adams, 549 South Glenhurst avenue, died Saturday morning at his home after a long illness.

He was born in Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 29, 1894, attended the University of Pennsylvania, and married Florence Smith on April 21, 1923. He was also a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Toledo, and a veteran of World War I, residing in Birmingham for the last nine years. Mr. Adams had been connected with the Eaton Manufacturing Company of Detroit.

Surviving besides his wife, are two daughters, Ruth and Mary, both at home, and a sister, Mrs. M. M. Gilman of Chicago.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 in the Bell funeral home with the Rev. W. Glen Harris officiating. Burial was in Toledo.

Mrs. Irene E. Bassett, 20855 Fourteen-mile road, died Monday morning at St. Joseph hospital, Pontiac, after a long illness.

Born in Southfield township, Dec. 2, 1888, she had lived here all her life, marrying Will A. Bassett in 1909. She attended Birmingham schools.

Surviving are her father, Ezra C. Bristol of Southfield township; six sons, Lawrence of Lafayette, Ind., John W. of Pontiac, and Jay W. Henry M. Rolland A. and Alton J., all of Birmingham.

Also surviving are three daughters, Katherine L., Mary E., and Florence E., all of Birmingham; three sisters, Mrs. Ida Gorman and Mrs. Julia B. Clemens of Birmingham, and Mrs. Clarissa Haack of Wilcox, Mich.; and a brother, Ralph Bristol of Birmingham.

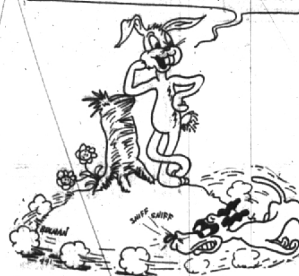

Funeral services were held yesterday at 2 p. m. from the Bell funeral home, with the Rev. A. F. Runkel of the First Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Former AAF Sgt. Wins Commendation

Richard M. Darval, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Darval, 1539 Humphrey, who received his discharge from the Army some time ago, recently received a certificate of meritorious service signed by Colonel Lewis Mundel, A.C.

Darval served as a technical sergeant with the Army Air Forces in the Eighth Weather Squadron, and received the certificate for "his contribution to the successful accomplishment of the mission of the AAF in World War II."

HE'D SAVE HIMSELF A LOT OF RUNNING AROUND IF HE'D LOOK IN THE YELLOW PAGES OF THE TELEPHONE DIRECTORY FOR "WHERE TO BUY IT" INFORMATION.
