Women's Union Luncheon Sept. 25

Dr. Leslie A. Bechtel, executive secretary of the Detroit Presbytery, will be guest speaker at the annual September birthday luncheon of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, Sept. 25.

Arrangements for the 1 o'clock buffet luncheon are being made by Division 3, Mrs. E. W. Seasholtz, chairman, and Division 4, Mrs. F. J. Zedler, chairman. Reservations for the affair must be in by Sept. 23.

Mrs. R. P. Cole, division president, will have charge of the business meeting which will follow the luncheon.

Dr. W. Glen Harris and the Rev. George L. Bentscher will also speak briefly during the afternoon.

William Brown Weds Jean Dillo In California

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dillo in Hugo, Calif., was the scene of the nuptials Sunday, Sept. 1, of their daughter, Jean, to William Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown of Hazelwood avenue.

The Rev. William Pepper of the Methodist Church of Hugo officiated. The bride's attendant was Ann Gorthy of St. Francis, Kan., an Alpha Delta Pi sorority sister of the bride.

Best man was Robert Beers of Birmingham and the bride's brother, Mr. James Dillo, was ring-bearer.

They will make their home in Boulder, Colo., where both will attend the University of Colorado. Bill, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, will major in English for his senior year, while Jean will begin her senior year as a psychology major.

Christ Church Cranbrook Is Scene Of Erb-Morley Rites

In a Tuesday afternoon service in Christ Church Cranbrook, Barbara Jean Morley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Morley of Euclid avenue, exchanged marriage vows with Carl Erb.

Ann Arbor, sister of the groom, and Patricia Morley, the bride's sister, acted as matrons of honor. The maid-of-honor, respectively. They were dressed in light blue crepe, and their bouquets were light blue delphinium, pink roses, and ivy, tied with light blue ribbon.

The bride wore a dress of light blue crepe, and the groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Matthews, who was assisted by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Matthews, who was assisted by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Matthews.

The wedding was held at Christ Church Cranbrook, which was the scene of the nuptials.

The bride and groom were surrounded by their family and friends, who gathered for the ceremony.

The ceremony was a simple and beautiful one, and the bride and groom were united in marriage.

Anne Presley Is New Girls' League Head

Anne Presley was elected president of the Girls' League of Bloomfield Hills School for the coming year, at its first meeting of the year last Thursday.

Mary Ann Watson will serve as new vice-president, Margie Baker as social director, Margaret McCortney, secretary; Mary Lou Holland, treasurer; and Betty Collier, sergeant-at-arms. New reporters are Joan Wood, Marlene Thomas, Sheila Flannery and Barbara Bee. Kay McDonnell was elected historian.

The Girls' League, under the direction of Ruth Woodman, instructor, has sponsored most of the social activities in the school, and has made plans for a "get acquainted" dance next Friday night.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

It is now time to order your personal Greeting Cards. Our collection is not as complete as in previous years, but we know, of course, you understand. Wish there was something we could do about it, but another year we hope that we can render better service.

In Any Event

LABELLES is a Shop devoted to beautiful things. This far-above-the-average, well balanced Shop provides a gift-service so up-to-the-minute, varied and complete that a growing number of patrons seem to have adopted the maxim: "In any event, send a LaBelle gift."

For weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, Christmas and many another special day there are particularly appropriate gifts. Moreover, for those special and personal events in the lives of all of us there are beautiful LaBelle gifts which say "Thanks a Million" when someone has bestowed a favor, for instance, or has entertained in their home or cottage.

In any event your thoughtfulness and your gratefulness become eloquent indeed when silently expressed in this way.
