Relatives Attend Baby's Christening

While Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riecks were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Riecks of 13-Mile road, daughter Karen was christened at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Detroit Sunday.

In attendance at the ceremony were Karen's other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Bard of Fairfield avenue, great-grandmothers Bard and Johnson, and great-grand-aunt, Mrs. John Marberry, of Alma, Mich.

Following the baptism, dinner was served to 15 guests at the Detroit Golf Club, and later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bard were hosts at a reception for the baby in their home.

The Robert Riecks will leave Monday for Hamilton, N. Y., where Mr. Riecks will finish his studies at Colgate University.

V.F.W. Women Give Flag To Girl Scouts

At the annual "Homecoming" of Girl Scout adult workers held Friday, Sept. 13, at the Community House, the Scouts of Birmingham were presented with a beautiful silk American flag and standard by Mrs. F. G. Samuelson on behalf of the Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In accepting the flag for the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Robert F. Kohl, president of the Scout executive board, thanked the Auxiliary in the name of the Scouts, and said the flag would be greatly appreciated by the girls and the Board.

At this same meeting, Mrs. Carl Esmy reported that the girls of Birmingham had contributed $126.34 to the Juliette Low Fund during the last season.

Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, organization chairman for the Girl Scouts, can offer information to any woman interested in Scout work.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foley To Live in Rio De Janiero

The Rev. Daniel T. Wholihan of St. Hugo of the Hills officiated at the noon ceremony Saturday which united in marriage Anne Donnelly Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Slocum Nichols, of Tiverton road, and Arthur David Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Foley of Madison avenue.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white lace. The bridesmaid was a plain net yoke, a wide lace-of-shoulder ruffle, and long pointed sleeves, while the full skirt ended in a short train. Her finger tip veil was of net, and was fastened to a stiff lace tiara. A white orchid surrounded by white roses and Stephanotis formed her bridal corsage.

Elizabeth Nichols, as her sister's maid-of-honor, wore a long gown of emerald green tulle, which had a rolled collar around the V-neckline, brief sleeves, and a full skirt. She wore a hat of horsehair braid, ostrich tips, and ribbon, and her bouquet was of variegated ivy and Esther Reid daisies.

Charlotte Nichols, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Gee of Madison, Wis., were bridesmaids. Their gowns were chartreuse color of the dress worn by the maid-of-honor; they had small oval face-hats of ostrich tip and veiling, and they carried plain ivy and Esther Reid daisies.

Best man was Robert Foley, the groom's brother. Seating the guests were John Foley, another brother of the groom, Charles Savage, Frank L. Cavan, Jr., Roeder, and John Corson, all of Birmingham, and John Donnelly of Detroit.

Hunters Trials To Be Saturday At Metamora Hunt

Metamora Hunt will hold their 18th annual Hunters Trials this Saturday over the cross-country course at the club.

Beginning at 10:30 a. m., the trials will continue throughout the day, interrupted only by the buffet luncheon at noon in the clubhouse.

Among the classes to be featured are the green hunters, pairs of hunters, working hunters, thoroughbreds and other-than-thoroughbreds, professionals, and hunters for juniors.

Another class, the Corinthian hunters, in proper hunt appointment, will compete for the J. Dean Rucker memorial trophy, which was won last year by Lewis Bredin's "Macadoo," and the year before by Mrs. Graham J. Graham's "Blackthorn." These same horses will be competing this year, with Patricia Carter showing "Blackthorn" for Mrs. Graham.

The committee for the trials is headed by Ethel Flinn of Grosse Pointe, and assisting her are Mrs. James Bullock of Birmingham, Mrs. Graham of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Philip Hart, also of the Hills.

Grosse Pointers on the committee are Mrs. Edward C. Parker and Mrs. Everett E. Fisher.

Dr. Ernst Scheyer To Give Lecture Series

Dr. Ernst Scheyer of Ravine road, professor of Humanities and Art History at Wayne University, will present a sixteen-week illustrated lecture course on the subject, "The People and the Art of the Bible."

The series will begin October 2 at the Baldwin Library at 10 a. m., and will be held every Wednesday following that date.

Information concerning the fee can be obtained from Mrs. Duncan McCallum of North Woodward avenue, Mrs. Albert Clark of North Adams road, or Mrs. H. T. Hunt of Route No. 2.

Results Of Duplicate Bridge Game Told

High scores at the duplicate bridge game played last Wednesday evening at the Community House were Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Canine of West Frank street.

Second place honors went to Harry Weller and Charles Strelings while Mrs. Norman Keller and Mrs. E. F. Heugh were in third place.

There were seven tables in play at this tourney, and other games are scheduled for each Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Community House.

AUTUMN
Time for a Greyhound
Color-Tour

... along flame-bright highways

It's a grand time for travel and sightseeing. Mother Nature's brilliant fall show is on display. Trees are dressed in fiery reds and golds. Hills and valleys are tinted in vibrant rusts and browns. The countryside is a bright crazy quilt of warm, glowing color.

The best way to enjoy a "close-up" view of this autumn spectacle is through the large picture frame windows of a Greyhound bus... windows especially designed for greater looking pleasure. And Greyhound's deep cushioned, reclining seats add enjoyment to every mile.

Take your autumn trip now! Seats are more plentiful. Departures are frequent. Fares are still at their low pre-war level.
