Great Books Program Planned For Group Discussion In Area

A course for discussion leaders for the Great Books Program will begin Oct. 2 in Detroit, and will run for 18 weeks. The program itself takes the form of group discussion on the classics in world literature, and it is hoped leaders will be found for such groups for the Birmingham area.

The Great Books Program was made famous by the University of Chicago, and is sponsored in this area by Wayne University, the University of Michigan extension service, and the Detroit Public Library.

The objective of the discussions is to encourage adult personal development through knowledge and understanding of philosophies and ideals expressed by the books.

The Baldwin Library here has all of the books listed and all information on the subject. Miss Cooke or Mrs. Stringham will talk with anyone interested in the course.

Every great masterpiece from Plato on down through the ages to Karl Marx is included in the classic offered by the program, said Miss Cooke.

Couple To Mark Golden Wedding At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert C. James of Bloomfield Village will celebrate their golden wedding Monday, Sept. 23, at a dinner to be held at Kingsley Inn, with their daughter Helen, Edith Mayer of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Wagoner of Pontiac, as guests.

Mr. James is a former member of the Legislature and is best known as the author of the Michigan Auto Drivers Law. He has just completed 25 years with the Fireman's Insurance Co. and has been retired since Jan. 1. At the present time Mr. James' time is occupied with his duties as justice of the peace and board member of the Bloomfield Hills township board.

Mrs. James is also widely known as one of the top wartime knitters of Oakland and Wayne counties, having received Red Cross citations for the large number of hours spent knitting. For over 640 hours of distillation work at Harper hospital in Detroit, she has received a chevron and two bars.

The Jameses moved here from Detroit 14 years ago, where they had resided for 30 years on Euclid avenue. She is a member of the DAR, Mayflower Society, and the Women's City Club of Detroit.

The Jameses were married Sept. 23, 1896, in Saginaw, after attending school together.

"It was a teen-age affair," said Mrs. James. "I don't know where the years have gone. We've seen many changes during the years. When we first moved into our home on Euclid in Detroit, Mr. James had to sign for the gas."

Both Mr. and Mrs. James are very active. Mrs. James does her housework, and attributes their activity and health to good inheritance.

"It's natural for both of us to be active. Why, if we weren't, we'd both just die. On both sides, relatives have lived to really ripe old ages, which is what we are doing."

Their daughter, Helen, is a teacher in the Detroit school system.
