Farm Home Scene of Twenty-Plus Club Outing and Meeting

The Twenty-plus club of the First Baptist Church met last Sunday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyes on Lone Tree road, Milford, for a picnic dinner and business meeting.

Horseshoes, ping pong and croquet provided entertainment for the 64 members and guests, which is the largest gathering the club has had.

Among the guests were Dr. Crump, pastor of the church, Mrs. Crump and Ben Crump, George Sunday school, Mrs. Jackson and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stephens and daughters, and Frank Lawrence, president of the Baptist Youth Fellowship which the club is sponsoring this winter.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Stuart Smith, A. C. Davidson and Merritt Olsen were appointed to plan the program, recreation, and refreshments for "Youth in Church Night," Oct. 3. This is part of the Christian Education Program scheduled for Sept. 29 through Oct. 4.

Chuck Moore was appointed chairman of arrangements for the Halloween party which will be held Nov. 1 at the church and is for the entire church membership. Next Sunday evening, Sept. 29, the club members will attend the first fall B.Y.F. meeting to give this group a sendoff for the season.

Later in the evening there will be a special meeting in the church parlors for election of officers. The following are on the nominating committee: Mrs. A. C. Davidson, Mrs. Melvin Middle-ditch, Dorothy Perkins, and Merritt Olsen.

MOMS Club Holds National Convention Here This Week

Birmingham will be the scene of the fifth annual national convention of the Mothers of Men in Service organization, which will take place October 2nd and 3rd. The local unit will act as hostesses, and meetings will be conducted in the Community House.

The first team on the convention calendar is the Wednesday morning registration and mixer from 10 to 12 noon which will be handled by Mrs. Lee Clark of Oxford, Mich.

Following this get-together, luncheon will be served at the Baptist Church by members of the church's women's society. The opening session of the convention will be at 1:30 that afternoon, over which Mrs. Kenneth Foust of Dearborn, the state president, will preside.

Mrs. S. H. Jensen, president of the Birmingham MOMS, will welcome delegates and guests. Fol-

Winners of Hunter Trials Announced

The weather was ideal Saturday for the 18th annual Hunter Trials held at the Metamora Club, and the eight events were watched by a number of spectators on hand.

Winner of the first event, the Green Hunters class, was William Reese Clarke's "Kitty Poyle" and first in the pairs of hunters competition were Sallie Fortier on "Demarcation," and Johnny Wallace on "Weidfish," owned by R. E. Wilson.

Working hunters thoroughbreds winner was the E. S. Nichols entry, "Why Wonder," and first in the "King huffers other-than-thoroughbreds" was Edgar B. Thom's "Brigadier."

Winner in the hunters for junior class was Lydia Rothman on "Grey Dawn," owned by Somerset Farms, and the teams of hunters class was won by the E. S. Nichols entry, John Wallace on "Demarcation," was first in the professional class.

This year the winner of the J. Dean Rucker Memorial Trophy was Resmond Strong on "Night Flight," with "Brigadier" coming in second, and "Blackthorn" third. All events were judged by Col. Dorsey Bodney, formerly commandant for the U. S. Cavalry school at Fort Riley, Kansas.
