Musical Plans Season's Affairs

At the executive board meeting of the Birmingham Musical Association, Monday morning, Sept. 23, at the Community House, plans for the year were discussed.

In addition to the regular Thursday afternoon meetings to be held through the season, Mrs. William Raymond, program chairman, announced that there will be three evening concerts sponsored by the group. One will be a benefit, another will be in conjunction with the Community Program Series, and the third will be held during National Music Week in May.

The usual Christmas Carol Sing will be heard Christmas eve, with Mrs. Arnold Berndt in charge.

The choral ensemble rehearsals will begin Oct. 3, to be held at 8:30 p. m. in the Baldwin library auditorium. Mrs. Gertrude Greer will direct the singers, and Mrs. A. Z. Mitchell will be accompanist.

The opening meeting of the Musical, to which guests are invited, will be Oct. 10 when an all-Brahms concert will be presented at 2:00 p. m. in the Community House.

19-2-30 Group Will Meet Again Tuesday

The 19-2-30 group at the Community House will resume their meetings next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

This group was organized last year for the purpose of meeting other young people in the area group. Members got together twice a week for such activities as hayrides, square dances, roller skating, wieners, and for informal evenings of bridge, pool, ping pong, and dancing in the Ranch Room.

The meetings are informal, and there is just enough organization to hold the group together, with committees appointed to plan special reviews.

Newcomers to Birmingham will be welcome to come to the Tuesday meeting to help with the ideas and plans for the coming year.
