Mrs. James Olsen Honored at Shower

Mrs. James Olsen, 31636 Southfield road, was honored Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. John H. Simez of Pierce street with a handkerchief and card shower by the members of Birmingham Temple No. 94, Pythian Sisters. The Olsens are leaving for an extended trip and will make their home in California.

Mrs. Olsen has been a member of the local organization for the past two years and held the office of Mistress of Records and Correspondence.

The room was decorated with Spring flowers, and after a social evening refreshments were served with Mrs. Theodore Kiely in charge.

The next regular business meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held at the Community House Tuesday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock.

Dates of School Play Set for April 24 and 25

April 24 and 25 are the tentative dates for "Kind Lady," the Baldwin High School annual Spring play, which was postponed recently because of illness of several members of the cast.

Adapted from a story by Hugh Walpole, this melodrama had a very successful run on Broadway, and returned in New York in 1944, and met with even greater success.

The story is centered around a dignified and artistic middle-aged woman, living quietly in her London home, who bestows charity upon a shabby painter. He plots to alienate her family and friends and convince the outside world that the kind lady is insane.

Recent poster contest winners in connection with the play were Tom Mills, who won first prize of two reserve tickets; Joe Flues and Penny Pennington, second place winners, which entitled them to two general admission tickets.

U of M Students Home On Vacation

After spending the week end preceding their spring vacation at home, John Bloomston and Ann Sauer joined the ranks of vacationers from the University of Michigan, who arrived in Detroit last Friday for their spring respite from studies.

Those in town include Rachel Kira, Jim Herbst, Mary Quinn, Clayton and John Gordon, Carolyn Wells, Betty Durham, Nancy Lord, Martha Bestwick, Pudge Colgrove, Pamela Stumps, Margie Metzger, John Averill, Dick Robertson and Dennis Murray.

Pat Daly spent a few days in Chicago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Daly, and brother, Leo, before returning to Birmingham for the remainder of her vacation.

Mary Jane Stephens, daughter of the Hazen Stephens, spent the week end before the official spring relief home, but spent her actual vacation time with her roommate, Peggy Oviatt, and her family at Utica, N. Y.

Nan Gilbreath and Sally Mock headed for the "big city," for their brief respite from studies. Nan plans to spend one day of her trip east visiting her old classmates at Yassar.

Forrest Fox to Be Featured in Play April 19

Forrest Fox, 777, South Bates street, again will appear with the Detroit Civic Players when they present their "Princess Dayshine" production of "Princess Dayshine" at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in Detroit on April 19.

Forrest attended Redford High School where he was a member of the National Honor Society, and won acclaim as star of Redford's swimming team. He also received recognition for his outstanding work in dramatics and radio.

He later studied radio at Wayne University and has been prominent in Detroit Civic Players activities for the past three years.

Popular with Detroit theatre audiences for his juvenile characterizations, he has delighted them with his several performances. One of his most outstanding successes was his inimitable portrayal of "Scooper" in "Diana" for which he will be well remembered by Birmingham audiences.

In the role of the brave young Kurt, hero of "Princess Dayshine," Fox promises to turn in the usual smooth performance which has made him a favorite with local theatre-goers.

If all the five-cent pieces coined in the United States since 1866 were laid flat side by side in a single row, they would reach around the earth at the equator with a good many miles to spare.
