Girl Scouts Make Trip to Detroit, See Radio Show

Girl Scouts of Pierce School Troop No. 7 recently made a trip to Detroit to see the Detroit News and take in the WWJ Coffee Club program.

Highlight of their day came when their leader, Mrs. Buck Sullivan, was one of three chosen to participate on the radio program which turned out to be an Easter egg hunt.

Mrs. Sullivan was loser in the hunt and was given the grand prize—an Easter bonnet decorated with a perky fried egg, much to the delight of the attending scouts. For being a good egg herself, studio announcers awarded her a copy of "The Egg and I," plus a new steam iron and a cherry pie.

Returning homeward on the bus, scouts made friends with Mrs. Bessie M. Fowler, vice-president of the Path-Finder Project, Inc., and her seeing-eye dog.

Just before leaving the bus, Scouts arranged to have Mrs. Fowler and her dog come to Birmingham as guest speaker for the April 15 meeting.

"Tattoo" Charlie of Baltimore, well known exponent of the age-old Polynesian art, specializes in the manufacture of tattoo machines. For the needles in these machines small Mondel tubes are used.

Local Chapter of National Y Club Is Formed Here

A local chapter of the National YMCA Phalanx clubs was formed in Birmingham Tuesday. Phalanx, a Greek word meaning "unity," is the name adopted by young men in the "Y" program between the ages of 18 and 25.

Phalanx activities promote fine friendships, develop useful skills, stimulate sound thinking, and encourage support of democratic principles and Christian values, it was announced.

Members who affixed their signatures to the charter application were Bill Reed, Don Butler, Dare Maples, Howard Littleson, Roger Reynolds, Chester Myres, John Kothe, Eugene Wilkens, Harry Sugden, Walter Allison, Keith Egw and Ed Smith.

Group is scheduled to meet every Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the "Y" office. All young men interested in a program of sports, discussions, service to the community and leadership in Christian activities are invited to make inquiries of Ed Kirbert, local "Y" secretary, about membership.

Pierce Cub Scouts Planning 'Circus'

Cub Scouts of Pack B-7 are working diligently on plans for their circus to be presented next Wednesday in the Pierce School Gym at 7:15 p. m. Grown-ups reportedly will enjoy the show as much as children.

Side shows galore are scheduled, including an India rubber man, snake charmer, sword swallower, bearded lady, and a two-headed Cub. Soft drinks, candy and baked goods will be on sale.

The circus parade will be followed by "elephants, horses, lions and tigers, monkeys and acrobats" performing in the ring. Antics of the clowns will add a professional touch. The grand finale will be a rodeo with cowboys and Indians exhibiting their riding and roping prowess.

Proceeds of the circus will be used to purchase tools and handicraft equipment for the Pack.
