

Easter Services For Seniors Held On Ship's Deck

Aboard the steamer "District of Columbia," the 47 Washington-bound group from Baldwin High observed a colorful, all-student-conducted Easter service bright and early Easter morning "somewhere on Chesapeake Bay."

Daily bedecked in Easter togs, the 200 traveling students, led in hymns and readings by their fellow students, gathered together on the main deck of the ship for the Easter observance.

Responsive reading, led by Robert Brunggrabr, was preceded by the opening hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Brunggrabr again led his fellow students with a poem "Easter Gladness." The Easter message and prayer, given by Merry Bunyan, was followed by a hymn sung by the choir. Mary Ann Hatos gave the closing thought.

Chairman of the service was Miss Alice Rouse, with student co-chairmen, Merry Bunyan and Barbara Popperell. The choir number by the choir was accompanied by Pat Mullin at the piano.

Serving as the service committee were: Pat Quinn, Mary Ann Hatos, Natalie Knight, Jean Chaney, Mary Anne Kraft, Judith Emerson, Virginia Marson, Yvonne Engel, Jeanne Lange, Joan Froehner, Beverly J. A. H. Lloyd Appell, Bob Watts, George Allen, Jim Holden, Don Coulter, Lois Burton, Steve Campbell, Vincent Hayes, Ralph Dunbar, Bob Brunggrabr, Sally Smith, Helen Babcock, Cora Mack and Marion Adams.

'Cub Circus' at Adams Planned For April 18

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the first Cub Circus, to be staged by Pack B-8 (Adams School) in the school gymnasium April 18. Following this initial performance, the circus will be an annual event of the Cubs.

The event is being heralded as "the greatest Cub Show on earth," and will see every Cub participating in the main "arena," or in the "walk-around" and clown acts.

Every Den is to stage a special event and the imaginations of the boys are reportedly running wild in dreaming up new stunts. Among the many acts scheduled are the "Adam Shamons" (a group of acrobats and "strong men"); the "Talking Horse"; "Hindu Magic"; the B-8 Tiger Cubs with trained "wild" animals and the "Adams Aerialists."

Circus Atmosphere The school will take on an old-fashioned circus atmosphere for the tankard escapade, with real circus music blaring out over the public address system, and with concessions and refreshments, including the indispensable circus peanuts. A group of fathers is to decorate the school gym and arrange for a special lighting and events.

A. S. Douglas will wear the high hat and moustache as circus ring master, with R. S. Owen serving as events coordinator and M. G. Aldam in charge of concessions.

Many other Den Dads are serving on the various committees, working to make the circus a success.
