Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Dudley P. Frame won an easy victory as supervisor of Southfield Township in the Spring election, with these results: Frame, 1178 votes; Stephens, 713 votes; Murphy 242 votes.

Frank Gidley, Southfield Township building inspector, reports that more than three and one-half million dollars in building projects were erected during the past year ending March 31.

Southfield Township a n n u a l meeting was postponed from Monday, April 1, to Friday, April 25, at the Township office at 8 p. m. All qualified electors are urged to attend.

More than 100 members and friends attended the desert bridge given by the Women's club on Wednesday. A style show by local shops highlighted the afternoon with club members as the models. Easter finery was in evidence so that it was difficult to distinguish between the models and the audience. Mrs. F. Cannon was chairman of the party.

Mrs. E. G. McCormick of Kingville, Ont., enroute home from winter vacation spent in California, is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick of Arcadia avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peppitt and daughter, Ann, of Saratoga boulevard returned Saturday from Clearwater, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Jones of Erie, Pa., have purchased the Mark Stebbins home on Golden Gate drive.

Junior high group of the townsite were entertained last week by Joan Weaver who took 16 guests to the Women's City Club for a "snack" and snatched party. Snacks were served at the edge of the pool. Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean V. Weaver of Glendale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Urdige will entertain the Junior high group April 27 in their home on California drive. Phil, Jr., will be the host.

Mrs. Fred Purdy of Lathrup boulevard was hostess Tuesday evening to 25 women members of the Townsite Community Church. Three circles were recently organized within the townsite.
