Committee Chairman Vows Spoken Saturday at Lovely Double Ring Rites

Mrs. Fritz Hyde, Jr.

Heading the advertising committee for the Junior League Folles, which will be presented at the Music Hall in Detroit is Mrs. Fritz Hyde, Jr., Oakland County chairman.

At a double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday, April 19, Agnes Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Chapin avenue, spoke her marriage vows to George Weisner of Lake Geneva, Wis.

He is the son of Mrs. E. P. Weisner of Washington, D. C. The rites were read by Dr. W. Glen Harris, assisted by the Rev. Miller Crawford, pastor of the Community Church of Rochester, N. Y.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional ivory satin gown with a sweet-heart neckline, fitted bodice with full skirt which swept into a train. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a crescent of gardenias and white roses.

Her attendants were Miss Muriel Conley, maid of honor, and Miss Ann McDonald, bridesmaid, who wore dresses of pink and blue embroidered nylon, and carried baskets of camellias, panicles and snapdragons, with addresses of the camellias and panicles.
