

Why Birmingham Schools Need to Continue 2 1/2 Mills Even With Tax Amendment

By G. R. A. (Editor's Note: This article is the fourth in a series which The Eclectic is presenting concerning the present financial situation of Birmingham schools. This week's article is written by Mrs. Norman Lyle, who has recently resigned as a member of the Birmingham Board of Education because she moved just outside the school district.)

Let's Bonus Applications Received Here

Applications for the State of Michigan's veteran bonus are now available at the Veterans Council Center, the Municipal Building, Miss Blanche Breakey, local veterans counselor, announced this week.

Candidates Give Views on Ten Civic Questions

That Birmingham voters next Monday night go to the polls knowing the opinions of the seven candidates for the city commission concerning several questions of public interest which will have to be decided in the reasonably near future, The Eclectic this week presents the answers it has received from each of the candidates in reply to ten questions involving current city administrative problems.

Teachers Expected to Meet 1947-48 Contract Deadline

Members of the Birmingham Teachers' Club, comprising at least a majority of teachers in the Birmingham school system, probably will return their 1947-48 teaching contracts to the Superintendent of Schools by tomorrow, according to the deadline set up by the Board of Education.

Easter's True Meaning

Next Sunday is Easter, a day commemorated throughout the Christian world as a reminder that a 33-year-old Galilean youth by the name of Jesus, who lived only three days in the tomb, supposedly deceased, arose from the sepulcher and, appearing with his disciples before he was crucified. The whole theme of the Easter festival is based upon the resurrection.

Pick Winners of School Spelling Bees

Best spellers in the Birmingham primary schools were picked Monday, April 2, and the winners of the spelling bees held Friday, April 4, at the Birmingham Public Schools.

May Be Claimed at Veteran Counseling Office at City Hall

Applications for the State of Michigan's veteran bonus are now available at the Veterans Council Center, the Municipal Building, Miss Blanche Breakey, local veterans counselor, announced this week.

Easter Church Services Are Announced

(Mixing) the major celebration of Holy Week in Birmingham churches will open their doors Easter Sunday, April 6, anticipating the Easter season.

Local Telephone Employees Awarded Vail Citation

Mrs. Helen V. MacDougall, a traffic department supervisor at the telephone office of the Bell Telephone Co., has been awarded a Vail Citation for her outstanding service.

April 7 Election Data Available in Free Booklet

As eight-page non-partisan bulletins of information on candidates and issues to be voted on April 7, are being distributed by the Birmingham Office of the Board of Election.

New Recreational Board Created by City Ordinance

A new recreation board for the City of Birmingham was created by city ordinance Monday night.

Heart Attack Fatal to R. J. Tanner

Funeral services for Robert J. Tanner, 66, of 6610 Woodmont, died Tuesday at 2 p.m. from a heart attack.

Students Select 'City Manager' For Control Day

With their civic control day coming a week after their return from the Washington trip, Baldwin's seven 'city' commissioners for a day met last week to select their city manager and city clerk.

New City Truck

Purchase of a new dump truck, which the city anticipates using in its work this summer, was authorized by the city commission Monday evening at a cost of $2,998.11.

Joe Doakes, Who Won't Vote, Is One of Many Afflicted With Voters' Laryngitis

Just about premature when everyone was buzzing about voting, Joe Doakes, who won't vote, is one of many afflicted with voters' laryngitis.

Will Be Write-In Candidate for City Constable

Realizing that the City of Birmingham in order to give full service to its citizens needs a constable, and discovering that no one had been nominated for the position, Carl F. Ingraham, 940 Harmon, has announced his candidacy to run on a write-in basis.

More Insurance for Cabs May Be Sought

To be included in the April 14 hearing on the proposed ordinance that sets the city's tax rate, the commission will be asked to increase the cab companies' personal liability for public and commercial coverage.

Faints in Church

Called out on a resuscitator room after fainting Sunday, the result of a fainting spell, a woman, Mrs. C. Kane, 975 E. 12th, who had fainted while attending church, was well again after a brief hospital stay.

Commission Okays Charter Change for Road Oiling

An amendment to the city's mission to permit the city commission to develop a systematic city road oiling program and authorize the city manager to execute against the property owners the cost of street oiling was approved unanimously by the city commission Monday evening.

Could Re-Assign Property

According to the provisions of an amendment, the city would be permitted to assess for dust-proofing of city streets and alleys by the use of oil or otherwise, such assessments to be borne by the property owners, specifically benefited.

Students Select 'City Manager' For Control Day

With their civic control day coming a week after their return from the Washington trip, Baldwin's seven 'city' commissioners for a day met last week to select their city manager and city clerk.

New City Truck

Purchase of a new dump truck, which the city anticipates using in its work this summer, was authorized by the city commission Monday evening at a cost of $2,998.11.

Joe Doakes, Who Won't Vote, Is One of Many Afflicted With Voters' Laryngitis

Just about premature when everyone was buzzing about voting, Joe Doakes, who won't vote, is one of many afflicted with voters' laryngitis.

Will Be Write-In Candidate for City Constable

Realizing that the City of Birmingham in order to give full service to its citizens needs a constable, and discovering that no one had been nominated for the position, Carl F. Ingraham, 940 Harmon, has announced his candidacy to run on a write-in basis.

More Insurance for Cabs May Be Sought

To be included in the April 14 hearing on the proposed ordinance that sets the city's tax rate, the commission will be asked to increase the cab companies' personal liability for public and commercial coverage.

Faints in Church

Called out on a resuscitator room after fainting Sunday, the result of a fainting spell, a woman, Mrs. C. Kane, 975 E. 12th, who had fainted while attending church, was well again after a brief hospital stay.

Commission Okays Charter Change for Road Oiling

An amendment to the city's mission to permit the city commission to develop a systematic city road oiling program and authorize the city manager to execute against the property owners the cost of street oiling was approved unanimously by the city commission Monday evening.

Could Re-Assign Property

According to the provisions of an amendment, the city would be permitted to assess for dust-proofing of city streets and alleys by the use of oil or otherwise, such assessments to be borne by the property owners, specifically benefited.

Students Select 'City Manager' For Control Day

With their civic control day coming a week after their return from the Washington trip, Baldwin's seven 'city' commissioners for a day met last week to select their city manager and city clerk.

New City Truck

Purchase of a new dump truck, which the city anticipates using in its work this summer, was authorized by the city commission Monday evening at a cost of $2,998.11.

Joe Doakes, Who Won't Vote, Is One of Many Afflicted With Voters' Laryngitis

Just about premature when everyone was buzzing about voting, Joe Doakes, who won't vote, is one of many afflicted with voters' laryngitis.

Will Be Write-In Candidate for City Constable

Realizing that the City of Birmingham in order to give full service to its citizens needs a constable, and discovering that no one had been nominated for the position, Carl F. Ingraham, 940 Harmon, has announced his candidacy to run on a write-in basis.

A LOST PET?

Is there anything that can cause a pet to be lost? We don't know of a pet who has been lost by a pet owner who has not been diligent in his search for a pet who has been lost.

PHONE 11

Ask for the Classified Department - We'll help you write your ad.