Dr. Kelley to Speak Wednesday at AAUW Luncheon

The American Association of University Women's "President's Luncheon" is slated for next Wednesday, April 2, at one o'clock at the Community House.

On this occasion the Birmingham AAUW entertains presidents from branches in surrounding communities—Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Pontiac, as well as the past presidents of the Birmingham Branch.

Feature of the program will be a talk by Dr. Earl C. Kelley of the Graduate School of Education of Wayne University, and supervisor of secondary education of the Detroit public school system. Dr. Kelly offers as his topic "The Plight of Youth."

He received his Ph.D. at the University of Chicago, and has since that time led a brilliant career in the field of education. The self-governing system which he established among the delinquent youths of "The Problem Boys' School" in Milwaukee attracted international attention. Dr. Kelley is a resident of Birmingham. Reservations for the luncheon are being handled by Mrs. Edward McCaul, 462 Pilgrim.

Barnum Religious Club to Present Easter Service

The Religious Education Club, which meets each Thursday noon in the music room of Barnum Junior High School, will present the Rev. Harold Towne of St. James Episcopal Church as the speaker at a special Lenten service today at the school. Mr. Towne's talk will deal in particular with the great Easter message. Betsy Brewster, president of the club, will preside while Ann

Averill and Richard Dedo will have charge of the music. Special prayers by Pat Millar, Bob Spencer, Ann Averill and Betsy Brewster will be offered, and the scripture story will be read by Frances Smith, Ruth Schickler, Larry McCracken and Carolee Dorry will be among the choir members while Geraldine House and John Wood will sing.

Other news from the club is the report of an original written interpretation of the story of Ruth, based on the "Book of Ruth," which was presented by members of the Club a few weeks ago.

The club is non-sectarian and open to all junior high pupils who care to attend.
