Musicale Student Program to Be Presented Today

The Community House will be the scene today at two o'clock of the student program of the Birmingham Musicale. All the young ladies participating are daughters of members of the Musicale.

Miss Carl Rosenberger, pianist, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger. She is a pupil of Edward Bredshill and is now studying with Katja Andy in his absence.

Miss Patsy Welden, violinist, will be accompanied by Robert Bates. Miss Welden is a former student with Edwin Idler and is now studying with Josef Gindold. Both Miss Welden and Miss Rosenberger are attending Kingswood School.

A sophomore at Michigan State College of Music, Jane Sieney is majoring in voice with Mr. Swanson, head of the voice department. Miss Sieney is a former pupil of Lou Chapman at Kingswood School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sieney.

Another sophomore at the Michigan State College is Katherine Kemp, pianist, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp. She is a former pupil of Grace Emery and a graduate of Baldwin High School. She received a band scholarship on bassoon from Michigan State and is now majoring in piano there with Mr. Silberger.

Mrs. Alice Sickels Will be Speaker at DAR's Next Meeting

Mrs. Clark C. Coulter of Lake Park drive will be hostess to the daughters of the American Revolution, Piety Hill Chapter, on Tuesday, April 8 at two o'clock.

Assisting Mrs. Coulter as hostesses will be Mrs. Walter D. Stecker, Mrs. Irwin R. Higgert, Mrs. Erwin E. Darling, Mrs. Charles L. Lawson of Pleasant Ridge, Mrs. William J. Taylor of Detroit, and Miss Helen E. Jambo.

Reports will be given by Mrs. E. W. Wacker, state director of DAR, and chapter delegates who have returned from the state conference held in St. Joseph on March 27, 28 and 29.

At the March meeting, Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese presented a book review, "Paul Revere," which had been planned for this month, since Mrs. Alice Sickels, executive director of International Institute, who was announced as speaker for last month, was ill and unable to attend.

Mrs. Sickels will be the speaker for this meeting, however, presenting as her subject "Women of Other Nations."

Ten will be served following the program.
