

Oakland County RED CROSS NEWS

Application forms for the Michigan Veterans Bonus have been received at Red Cross offices in Oakland County, according to Mrs. T. W. Eustis, chairman of one service.

All veterans wishing Red Cross assistance in filing applications are requested to bring their discharge certificates instead of the small wallet size copy.

Home service offices are located at 410 Pontiac State building, Pontiac, and 321 W. Sixth St., Royal Oak.

Office hours are: week days, 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Saturdays, 8:30 a. m. to 12.

Highest phonograph record production in the history of the industry is expected by manufacturers in 1947—375,000,000 discs this year.

Not Enough Room

A car driven by Ernest A. Knight, 391 Townsend, crashed into the backs and sides of two other cars when he pulled up to a red light at Woodruff and East Maple last week. The drivers of the other two cars, James E. Morrison, of Pontiac, and George Mitchell, 560 Catalpa, were stopped some distance apart for the light. The distance apart was not large enough for a car to occur, police reported.

The number of business firms in the U. S. stood at the record total of 3,650,000 in 1946, the Commerce Dept. estimates, exceeding by 250,000 the number operating before World War II.
