Adcrafters Plan Annual Outing at Oakland Hills

A big day is planned by members of the Detroit Adcraft Club as they hold their Adcrafters at the Oakland Hills Country Club next Tuesday, Aug. 19.

The day will officially start with the golfers gathering on the north course at 9 a.m., and the committee promises no dull moment will be allowed to creep into the schedule of the day.

Since no "big day" is complete without a parade, they feel one will be held at 2:30. This will terminate at the baseball diamond where the game of the year, East vs. West will be played, beginning 30 minutes later.

Following the game, the Adcrafters will turn to barnyard gold, first removing the horses from the arena, as they test their aiming skill and throwing arms in a horseshoe contest. For those whose constitutions are less rugged, a hand concert also will be held in this 8 o'clock spot.

With a strenuous day almost completed, 7 p.m. will see every one taking time out to enjoy great big juicy steaks and all the trim's. Awards will be made to the winners of the various events held during the day at this time. Including in the day's schedule, also, is a Kiwanis Golf Handicap, swimming, dancing and entertainment.

Reservations may be made through Bill Cartwright, chairman, at 2237 Book Tower, Detroit 26. Others who have worked to make this 1947 affair a success are Art Heller, Harry Wise, Steve Showly, Bob Boehm, Bob Clark, Harry Lipski and Ed Tackney.

"Variety Girl" Proceeds Will Benefit the Blind

Members of the Birmingham Lions Club will sell tickets to the premiere performance of "Variety Girl" to be held at the Michigan Theater in Detroit the evening of August 29, local club president Bill Gardner announced this week.

Proceeds from the tickets will be used to further the work of the Rochester (Mich.) Leader Dog League for the Blind, he said. "Variety Girl" will feature such big Hollywood names as Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Ray Milland, Alan Ladd, Paulette Goddard, Dorothy Lamour, Barbara Stanwyck, Joan Caulfield, Harry Cooper, Barry Fitzgerald and a large number of equally famous actors and actresses.

Gardner said tickets may be obtained from Don Cunningham, Russ McBride, Dr. Jack Hasberger or any other Lions Club member.
