Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Heacock of Woodlawn avenue announce the marriage of their daughter Nancy Log on Aug. 12 to Edward Watson Crawford, son of Dr. and Mrs. Alphonse M. Crawford of Romeo.

The double ring ceremony was held in the First Methodist Church against a background of palms, baskets of white gladioli and larkspurs. Little James Schmalzriedt of Romeo presided the wedding party to the altar, and with a long white taper, lighted the candles arranged there. The Rev. James Wright, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of floor length, fashioned with a short train and satin bodice. Her finger tip veil was of white illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, each bloom nestled in lace.

For their honeymoon trip to Elk Lake in northern Michigan, the bride chose a brown moire silk, with a darker brown trim in velvet. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will reside in Willow Village, Ypsilanti, where both will continue work studies at the University of Michigan.

PONTIAC
A fine car made finer

The De Luxe Convertible Coupe has recently been made more beautiful by re-styling the instrument panel in colors which harmonize with body colors by the addition of deep-pleated, custom-type upholstery and by the tasteful use of chrome on windshield, rear view mirror and interior garnish moldings.

So many things in its favor!

Ask a Pontiac owner why he recommends a Pontiac—and he will likely tell you there are so many things in its favor that he finds it difficult to enumerate them all.

He likes its "Silver Streak" styling—so distinctive that you can recognize a Pontiac as far as you can see it. He likes its eager, smooth, quiet performance. He likes its comfort and handling ease. He likes the many fine features which make it such a pride to own and such a pleasure to drive. He likes its faithfulness—its ability to stay on the job for year after year with undiminished performance. And, of course, he will mention that he gets all this at a price within easy reach of any new car buyer.

Yes, there are so many things in its favor that your next car should be a Pontiac. You can never do better than a Pontiac!

THE SOONER YOU PLACE YOUR ORDER for a new Pontiac, the earlier you will get it. In the meantime, take care of your present car—you will get more for it when your new car is delivered.
